A WORD OF ADVICE FROM THE CLASS OF 1964

"Who reads a foreword anyway?" inquired one of our senior editors. This disheartening observation nearly stopped us in our tracks, for we were just getting ready to state our creed and our hopes in our most mellifluous prose.

Thirty-one of us. One hundred and eighty school days, not to mention working weekends. Ten or eleven hours a day. What does it all add up to? Sixty-one thousand, three hundred and eighty man hours — that's what it adds up to.

And what did it all mean? Well, it has meant ten thousand things, but we'll keep it down to mentioning one or two. In fact, we had planned to say nothing at all; "but we gotta have a foreward," said the guy who didn't read last year's.

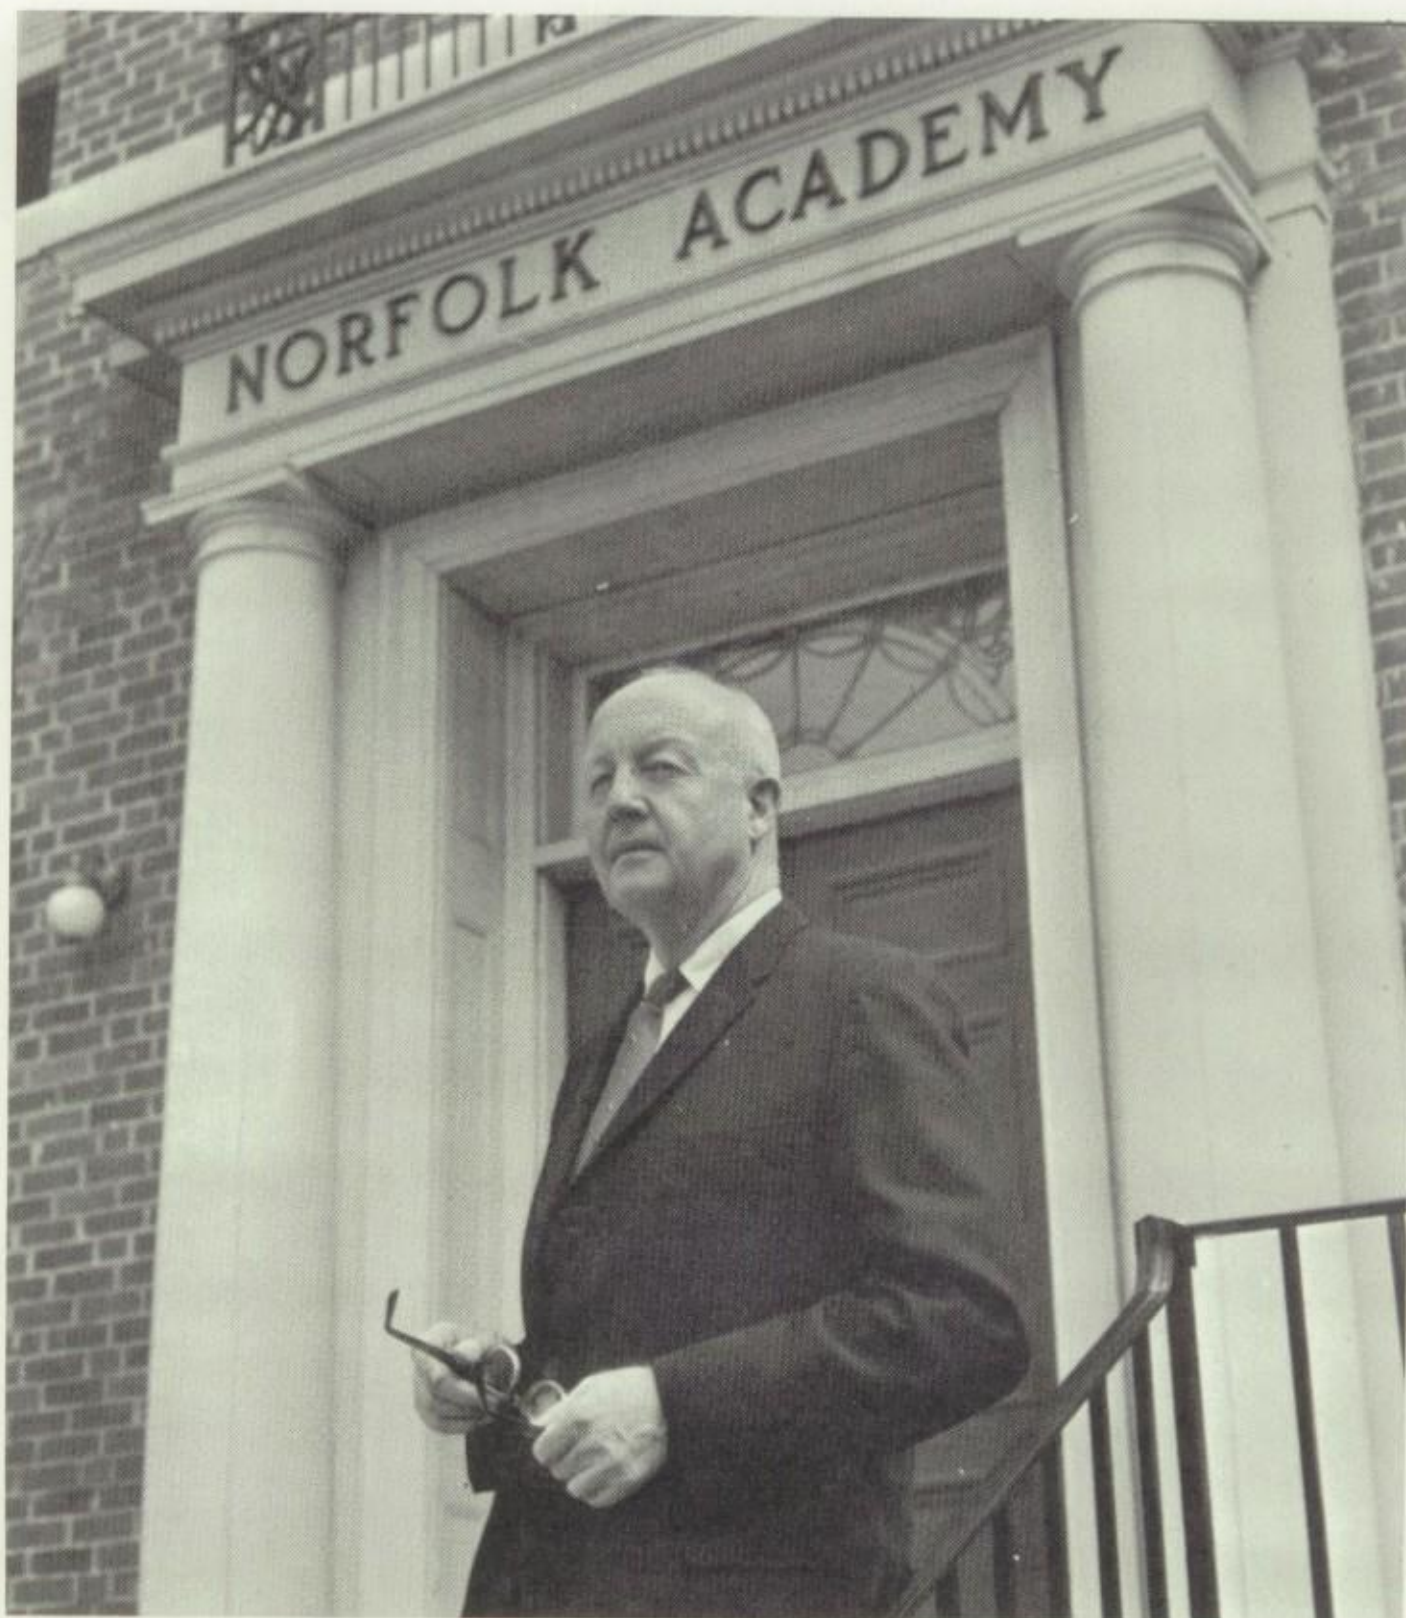

So — we'll let you in on one or two secrets: (1) It isn't easy, (2) and it does make things easier if you work at it every day — hard, and with enthusiasm.

Yes, that's what the foreword said last year. And if we had read the 1963 version we'd have learned the easy way that hard work is the easiest way in the end.

UPPER SCHOOL

BARRY JAY LEVIN

President (4); Student Council (4); Honor Court (2); President Student Council (1); Key Club (3); Monogram Club (3); Vice-President Booster Club (1); Cheerleader (2); Belfry (1); Annual (1); Business Manager (1); Wrestling (3); Tennis (3).

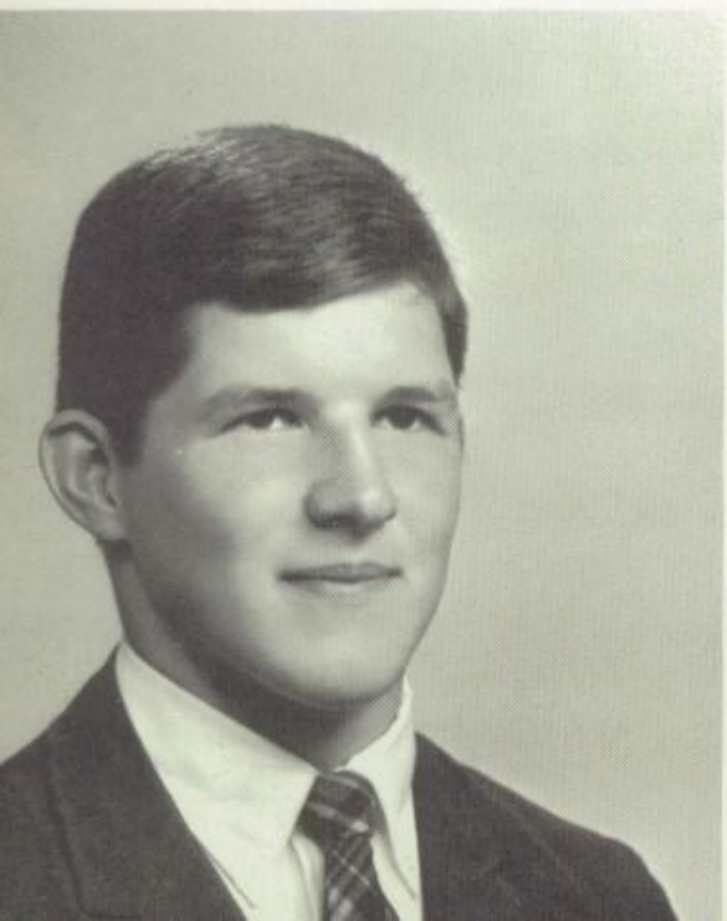

It's a typical bright Thursday afternoon at Norfolk Academy. Out on the athletic field the student body is gathered on the bleachers. A small figure is perched on a bench in front of the mob and, as the football team trots out on the field in orange magnificence, a bellow echoes across the field:

"All right, you guys! Let's yell a little! Let's really show these guys we're behind 'em!"

Who is this mighty mite with the big voice? It's Barry Levin, cheerleader.

B.J. wears many other uniforms around the Academy: his natural leadership has seen the Student Council, the Key Club, and the Class of '64 through many storms; his athletic prowess has been seen on the tennis court and to even better advantage on the wrestling mat.

With all his talents, augmented by an outgoing personality and remarkable conscientiousness, we are sure that B.J. will be as successful at W. & L. and at law as he has been at the Academy, which will remember Barry J. Levin for a long time.

GEORGE HALL SEBREN

Football (2); Soccer (3); Track (3); Monogram Club (3); Key Club (3); Honor Court (2); Vice-President (2); Sec. Treas. Key Club (1); Epsilon Club (1); Medical Club (1); President Speech Society (1).

George has had a pair of extra large boots to fill at N.A. (brother Herb's) and has done the job well.

"Sea Breeze" is one of our star athletes, having a special penchant for soccer, football and the shot-put, and has also served as Vice President of the Class of '64 for several years.

Although leadership and athletic prowess are George's forte, friendliness is another of his virtues that shouldn't be overlooked. Several girls have been extremely susceptible to this amiability, and we are sure that others are waiting their turns.

George plans to go to Hampden Sydney or V.M.I., and we wish him the best in his future endeavors there and elsewhere.

KENT DIXON WOODWARD

Football (3); Basketball (3); Tennis (3); Baseball (2); Student Council (1); Honor Court (1); Secretary (1); Annual Staff (2); Editor ORANGE and WHITE (1); Capt. Football (1); Monogram Club (4).

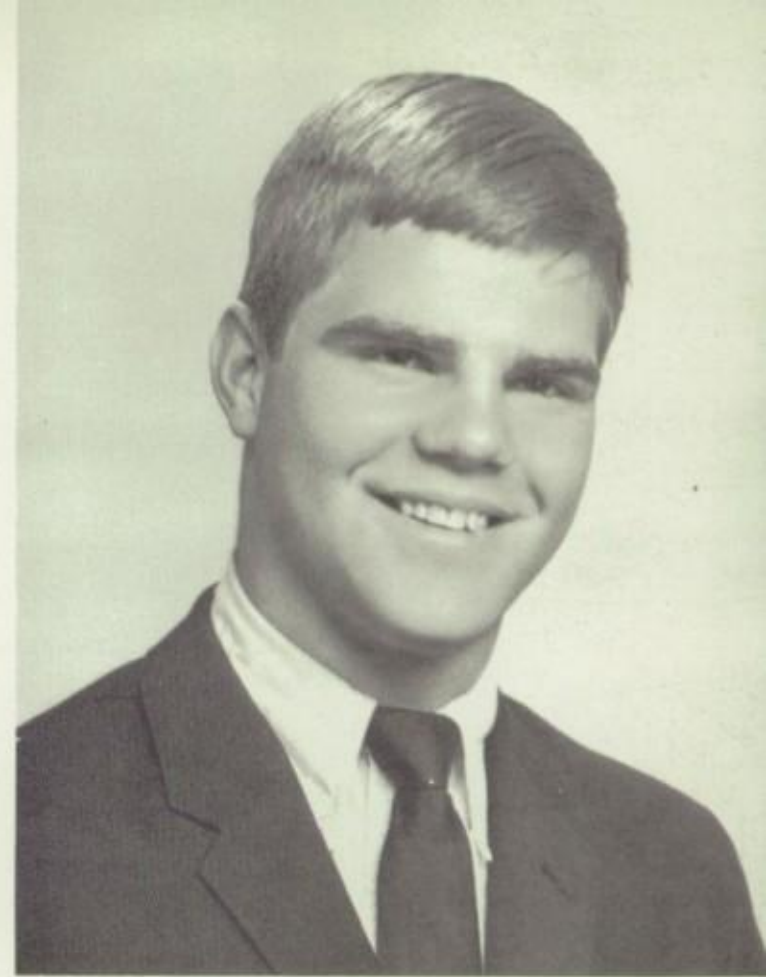

Football practice is almost half over on a sunny afternoon when a glass-shattering roar drifts over the driveway at N.A.; a small blue machine neatly executes a four-wheel drift around the corner and, white racing stripes glistening in the sun, the little speedster is gone.

Who is the driver of this fantastic auto? Is it Stirling Moss off to Le Mans? Is it Joe Weatherly off to Daytona?

No, it's merely Kent Woodward off early from football practice and on his way to his piano lesson.

Such an episode characterizes Kent perfectly: he is an individualist.

Probably the best athletic in the school, "Woodhead" as Mr. Harvie calls him, is also a leader of the class, serving as Secretary to the Student Council and Editor of the Annual. Finally, due to his many accomplishments (or maybe it's his long blond hair) even girls are ultra-susceptible to the Academy Star and we are sure that Kent will be as successful in this and other fields in the future as he has been at N.A.

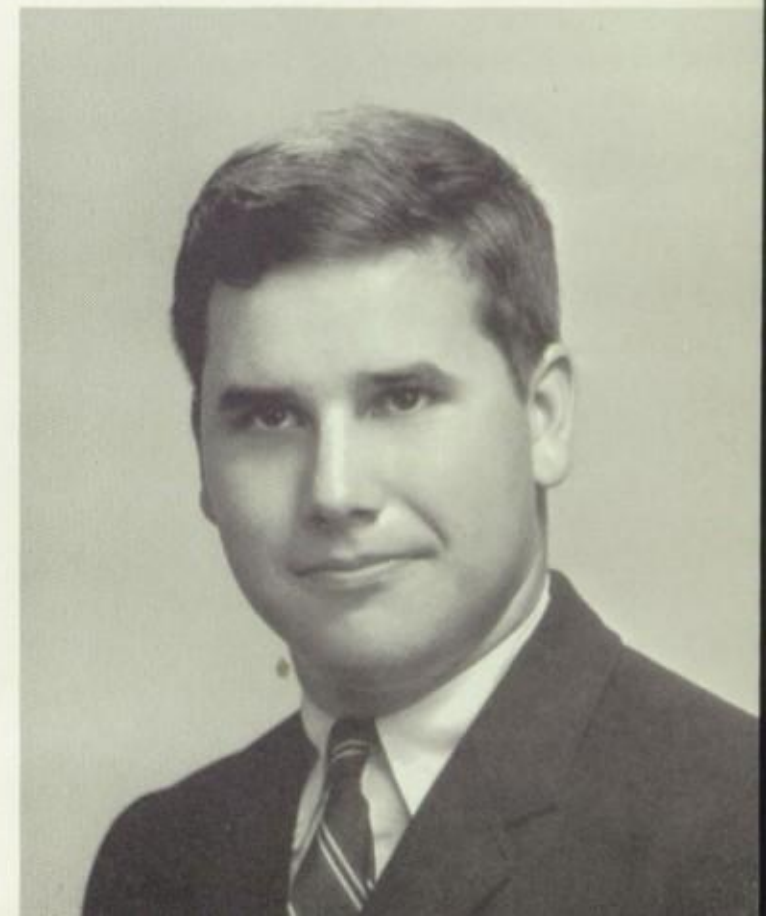

RICHARD CHAMBERLAINE BURROUGHS

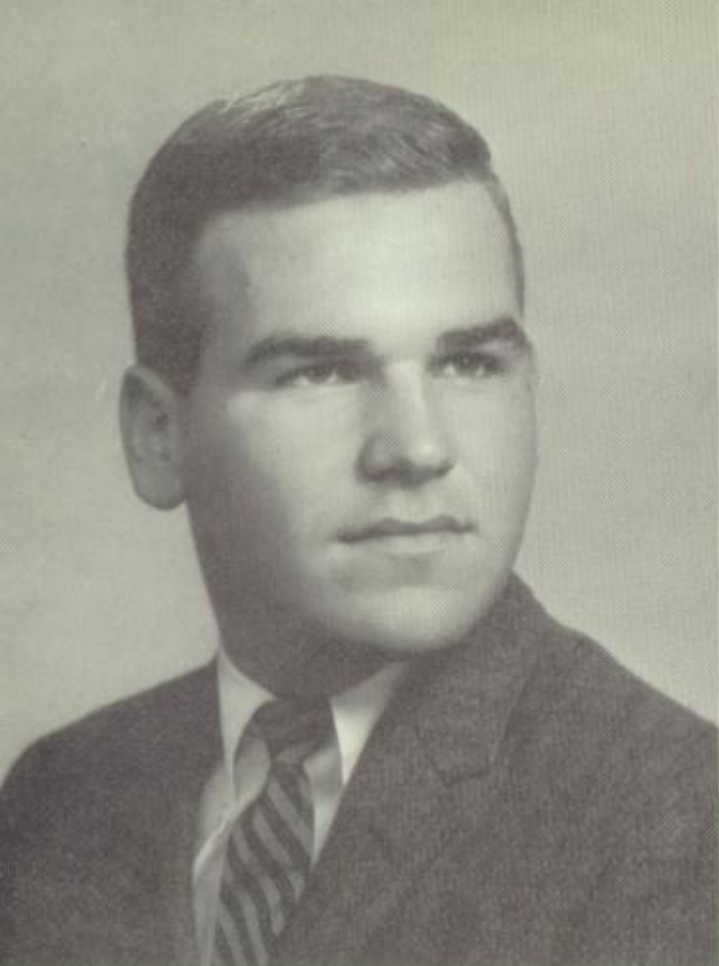

Tennis (3); Soccer (2); Monogram Club (2); Student Council (4); Vice-Pres. (2); Sec. (1); Treas. (1); Honor Court (2) Cheerleader (1); Business Staff of ORANGE and WHITE (1); Honors (1); President Speech Society.

Richard is one of the senior members of our student body: he has been here since the first grade and "Rich", like our two other twelve-year men, has compiled an excellent record. He has been on the Student Council for many years and the same joviality that has seen him through his duties there has won Richard many friends.

Beyond the Academy grounds, this friendliness extends in many directions, even, surprisingly, (due to Rich's modesty) to the Elizabeth River, in the middle of which one sometimes spies the Burrough's sailboat with two or three couples silhouetted against the cabin.

Although unsure of his college choice, Richard, we are sure, will carry his sterling qualities of leadership and friendliness to any school which he attends.

CHARLES EDWARD APPLEGATE

Tennis (2); Basketball (2); Epsilon Club (2); Business Staff of ORANGE and WHITE (2).

Ed is one of the few boys we have who has completely exhausted the available supply of Tidewater girls, and as if to prove the fact, his "Black Bomb" (it's really a Buick Special convertible) has traveled countless thousands of miles of the road from Virginia Beach to Front Royal, a little town near Washington, D.C.

Entering the Academy as a sophomore, Ed has developed into an asset for N.A. as well as Front Royal: his service on the Business Staff has been especially useful and, although plagued by back trouble, he has played basketball for two years.

We think that Ed will also be an asset at William and Mary next year, and we wish him the best of luck.

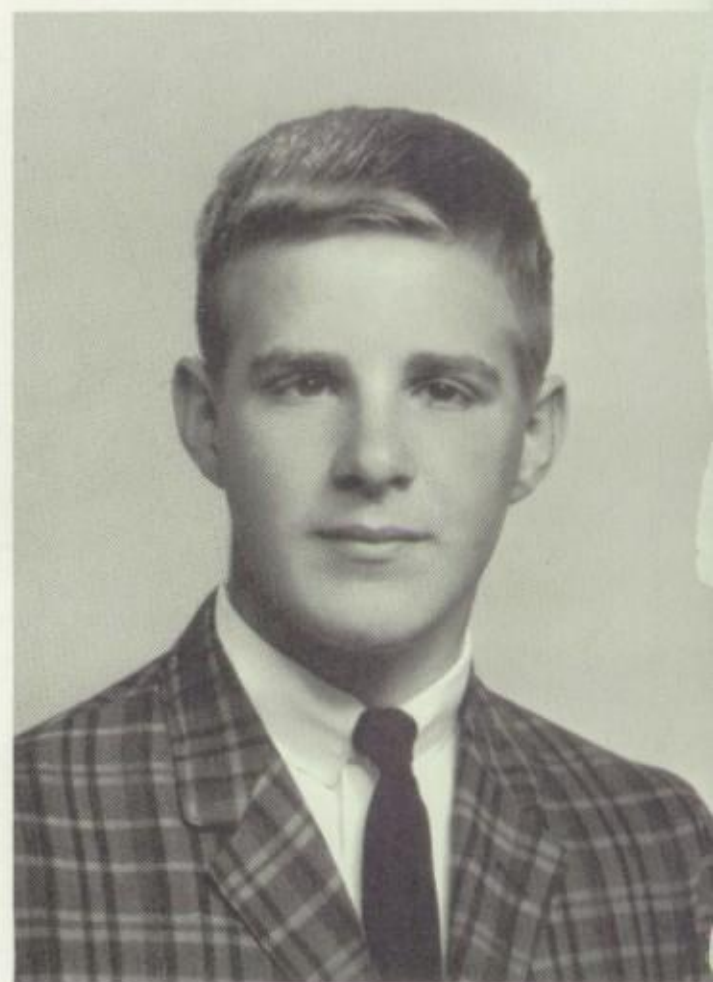

CARY GRESHAM BAYNE

Football (1); Basketball (2); Tennis (4); Honors (1); Orange and White (1); Science Club (2); Ars Medica (1); Belfry (1).

We think that Gresham's shock of blond hair would be much more characteristic if a pair of horns sprouted on the extremities thereof.

Undoubtedly the most mischievous member of the Class of '64 Gresh has brought many a brave master close to tears at N.A., and has matched his reputation as a prankster with an equal renown as a gallant at several schools in this area. These two talents, however, are not Gresh's only bids for immortality, for he is also a very good student and has played basketball at N.A. for several years.

Planning to attend a top college, Greshman may head North, South, East, or West after graduation, but, wherever this likable guy ends up, we wish his teachers luck.

SHELBY JAMES BEST

Football (1); Basketball (1); Track (1); ORANGE and WHITE (1).

Shelby came to N. A. this year from St. Francis Prep. in Pennsylvania and has been an important addition to the Class of '64. Arriving just in time for football practice, Shelby has been useful to the football team and we are hopeful that his avowed intentions of improving other teams will come to pass.

Shelby has quickly entered into things at N. A.: in addition to sports, he is the only Academy boy who is a member (as evidenced by his hair cut) of the R.O.T.C. and also the only permanent resident of the Kern Memorial Library where he conducts serious research work on the opposite sex.

Shelby, with all his experience, should post a fine record after graduation.

DUDLEY DUBOSE COCKE, JR.

Football (2); Basketball (2); Tennis (4); Monogram Club (3); Key Club (3); Belfry Staff (2).

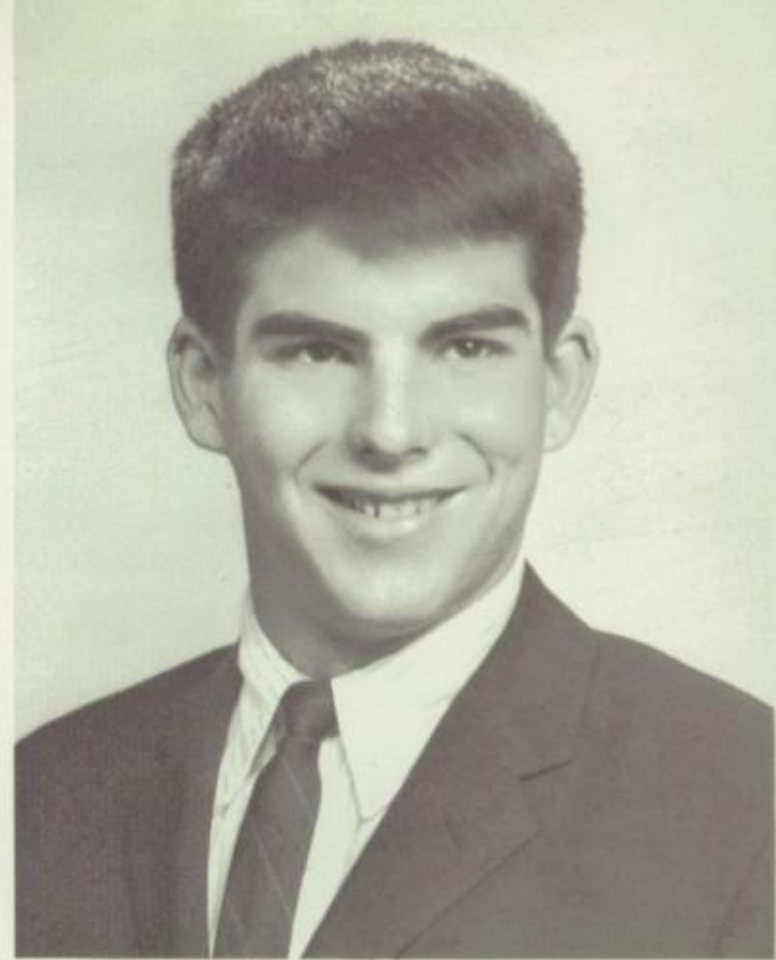

It's a sweltering day at Va. Beach, a typical summer afternoon at the Princess Anne Country Club.

Trumpets blare! Girls shriek: Dudley Cocke has just driven up in his station wagon, two surfboards (surrounded by tennis rackets, bathing suits, whites, and other assorted goodies) protruding from the rear, and two girls planted firmly on the front seat beside a book on philosophy.

Dud is probably the most versatile (and busy) of the class of '64 during the summer. Last season, he worked, went to summer school, played tennis, laid siege to dozens of girls with his various lines, became the foremost surfer in the class, and remained philosophical through it all.

Despite all this activity, the Beach Boy does not hibernate in the winter, being exceptionally wide awake on the tennis and basketball courts, football field, and in some English classes.

Dudley plans to enter law and business, and we are sure that he will succeed here as he has in most things.

TIMOTHY BERT COOPER

Tennis (3); Honors (3); Literary Magazine (1); Annual (1); Debating Society (1).

Tim is one of the few intellectuals in the Class of '64, but he tries to keep the fact a secret.

Sometimes it is hard to believe that the young fellow who drove his car several miles on a flat tire (he didn't have time to change it) possesses one of the best scholastic records at N.A.

Seriously, "Coop" does have a great interest in his school work, especially in English, as his service on the Literary Magazine and his excellent short stories testify. He is also known for his friendly attitude and carefree outlook on life and we feel sure that Tim will carry all these excellent traits with him on his swift journey (perhaps as an author) to success.

EDWARD HAMILTON DOOLIN, III

Football (2); Wrestling (2); Track (2); ORANGE and WHITE (1).

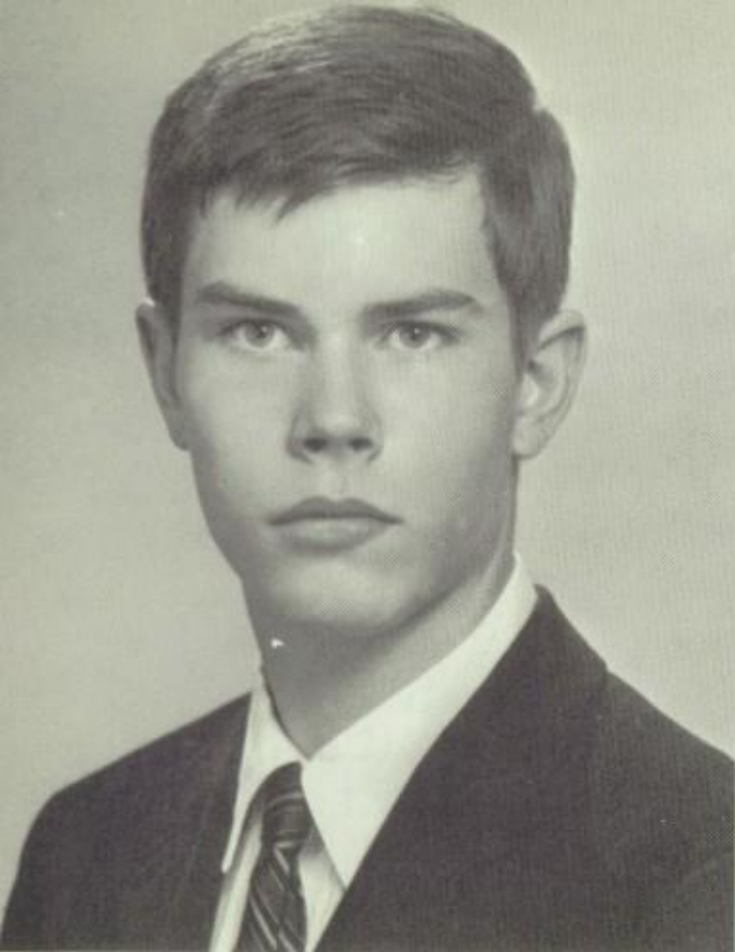

It's a bleak afternoon in Norfolk: a Plymouth station wagon, three scared faces at the windows, is proceeding down Little Creek a few (?) MPH over the speed limit. Is it a kidnapping? A thief being pursued by officers of the law?

No, it's only Ted Doolin carrying his car pool back to Va. Beach after a long day at N.A.

Besides his renown as "Fireball" Doolin, Ted is also known for his prowess on the football field and his phenomenal ability in Math. A mite on the quiet side, Ted is still a friendly fellow, and whenever he's caught with a girl, she's usually a winner.

Ted wants to go the Naval Academy and with his abilities, we see no reason why his every wish should not be granted.

WALTER GUERRY GREEN III

Football Statistician (1); Soccer (2); Baseball Manager (2); Business Staff ORANGE and WHITE (3); Epsilon Club (2); Booster Club (1).

Walt is one of the few intellectuals of the class of '64 and he really does the term justice.

A long-time student at the Academy, Walter is interested in a wide variety of subjects ranging from model railroading through the finer points of ancient Celtic warfare to the illustrating of various biological fields. Walter's fame as an artist is extremely well known at N.A.: his works adorn the walls, and we sloppier students have often had Walt's perfect hyperbolas or math papers held up to us as examples of how neat our work should be.

Although Walter will be remembered at the Academy chiefly for his outspoken intellectualism and artistic ability, we will not forget his willingness to assume responsibility nor his genuine spirit of friendliness.

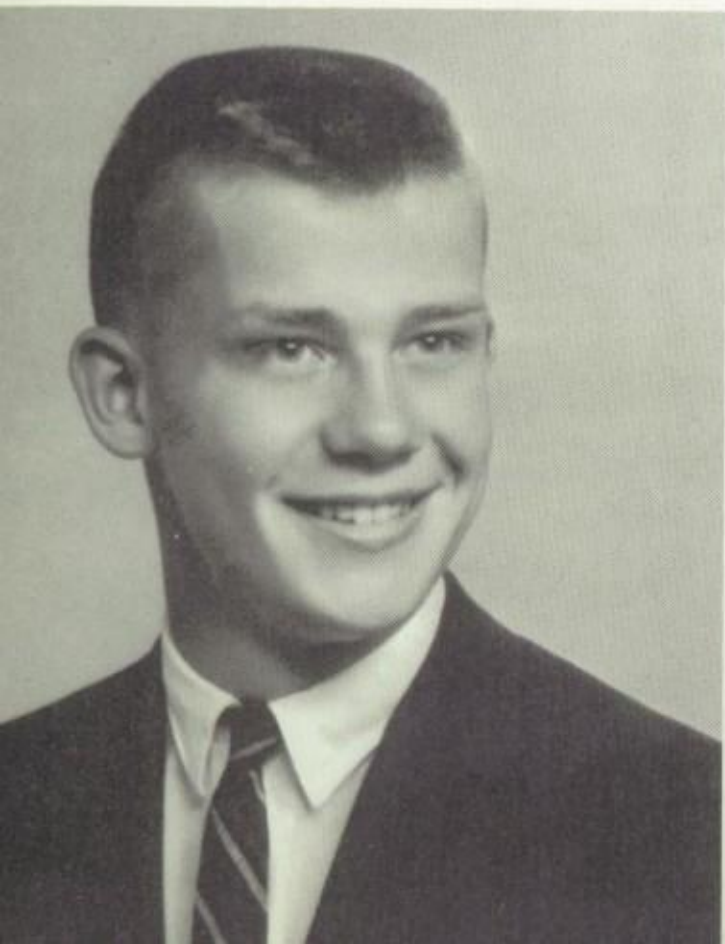

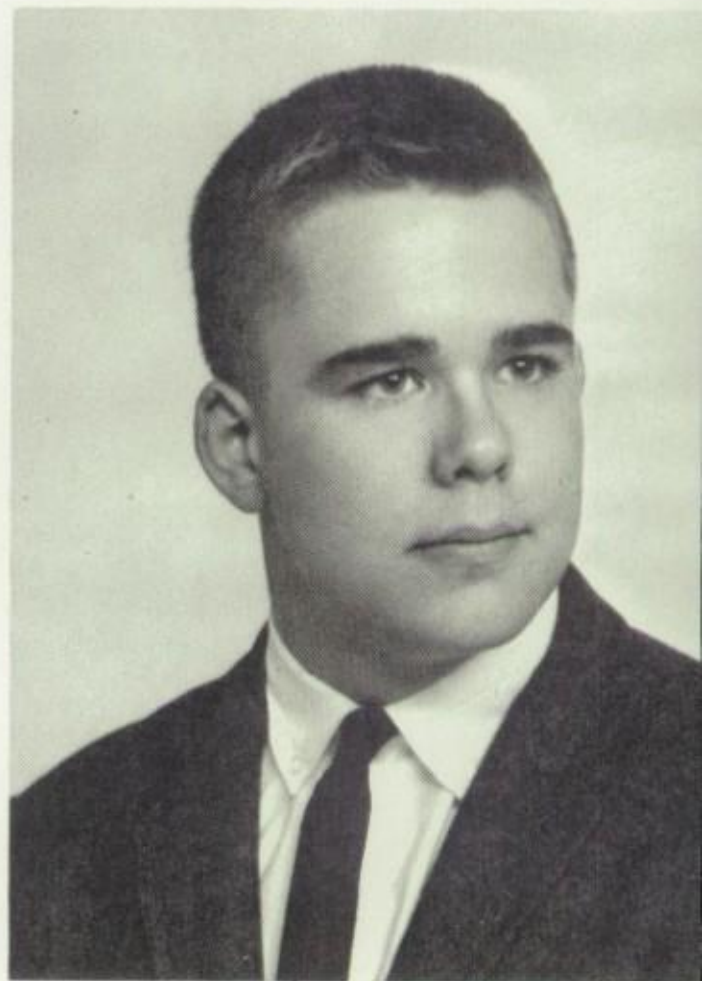

MICHAEL CAMPBELL HALL

Football (2); Wrestling (2); Belfry Staff (2); Library Assistant (1).

Mike Hall is one of the most intellectual members of the Class of '64: this well known characteristic is probably due to the fact that Mike has been at the Academy for seven years (off and on), and has also been stimulated by the cool air of northern Minnesota.

Mike, a renowned storyteller, has made the Class of '64 extremely aware of certain aspects of Minnesota life (notably the feminine side thereof) and has also stimulated the interest of various seniors' study halls in the finer points of fuel injection, exhaust systems, and other aspects of vital importance to his blue Ford station wagon.

Mike's forté, of course, is philosophy and with his intellectual-philosophical outlook on life, we trust that he will always be happy.

WALTER HARBORT, JR.

Football (2); Soccer (2).

Break out ye olde sunglasses! Here comes Jay Harbort in his new madras jacket, lovingly spreading brightness on the otherwise drab Norfolk Academy scene.

In the afternoon, Jay, donning a somewhat more sedate practice jersey, trots (slowly) out onto the football field where he joins his comrades. Coming to the Academy in his Junior year, Jay, aided by his friendly manner and willing participation in many activities, has quickly taken on the manner of an "old boy."

"Jay Bird," aside from his taste in madras, will also be remembered at N.A. for various pranks in English class and elsewhere.

At any rate, we feel sure that Jay's friendly attitude will see him successfully through his college years.

JOHN ANDERS HEILIG

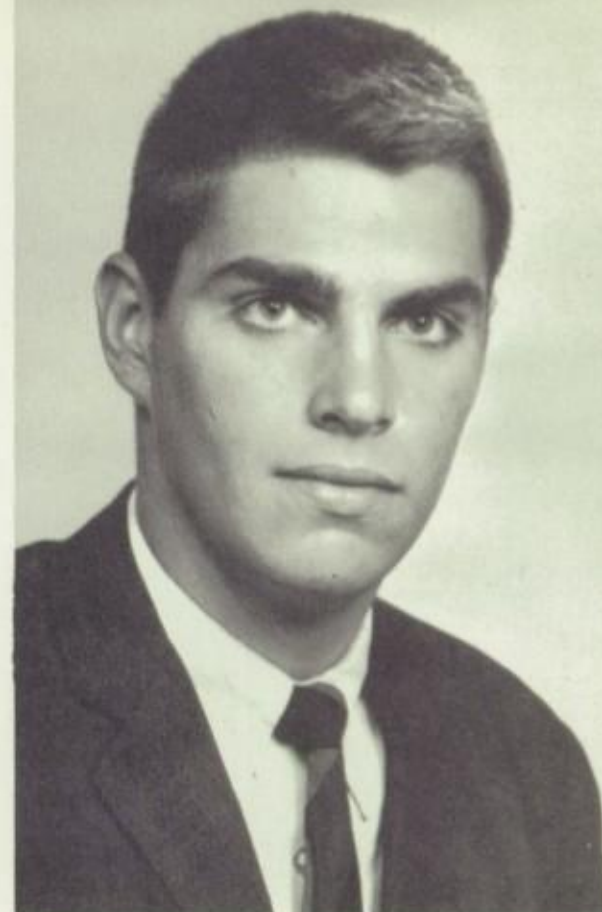

Football (3); Capt. Football (1); Basketball (3); Baseball (4); Monogram Club (3); Pres. Monogram Club (1); V. Pres. Monogram Club (1); Honor Court (1); Key Club.

John, one of the members of the Class of '64 with the longest tenure, has had a difficult task to fulfill at N.A.: he has had to follow in the large footsteps of old brother George.

Johnny has done a great job in all respects.

Outstanding in athletics, John is quarterbacking the football team, has performed well on the basketball court and really excelled as a leader of our baseball team.

Johnny, perhaps aided somewhat by his athletic prowess, is also successful in the time-honored field of the opposite sex. Although not very susceptible to feminine charms, the "Great Unsnowable," so the grapevine has it, has completely captivated several girls. John will long be remembered at N.A. for his friendly and willing spirit which he will probably carry to Hampden Sydney next year.

THOMAS ALVIN HERMAN

Soccer (2); Key Club (3); Annual Staff (2); Belfry (1).

The atmosphere is warm and sweaty; it is a typical afternoon in the Academy locker room and, although the football team is on the field some sort of activity is still going on in the supply room, as the sweet strains of "Summertime on Church Street" floating melodiously over the empty rows of lockers testify.

Obviously, Tommy Herman, football manager, is listening to his favorite radio station again.

Although Tom has made untold fortunes through his interest in certain unorthodox types of music, he has also found time in his busy schedule to manage the football team, keep himself in the upper ranks of the Class of '64, gradewise, and procure various "bands" for Academy functions.

Tommy's summertime activities, although unknown to many, are also quite profitable: it is rumored that Tom spends his time with several different girls (along with his bands) in the warmer months.

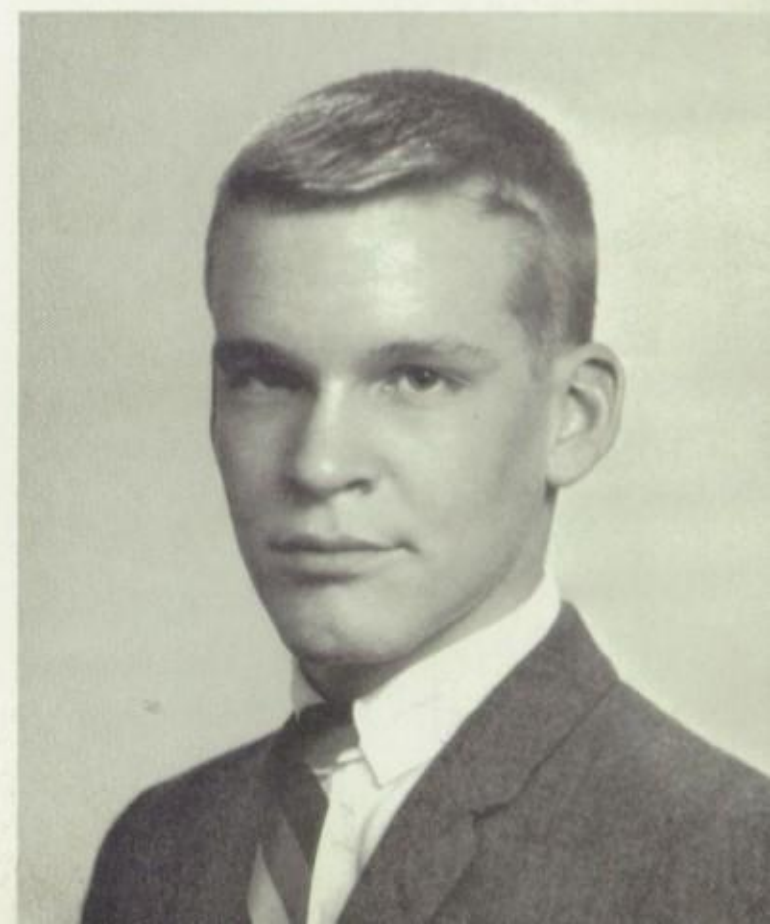

We are sure that Tom doesn't need it, but we wish him luck anyway in his future financial (and various other) endeavors.

CHRISTOPHER CHAPMAN HUDGINS

Tennis (3); Basketball Manager (2); Lit. Mag. (1); Class Editor ORANGE and WHITE (1); Honors (2).

On a typical school morning "Sludge" or "Creature", as he has been nicknamed, can be seen pulling into the parking lot at the fender of the other beach car. While Chris is not known for the dexterity of his driving, he can be seen at almost any party that he gets wind of, accompanied by his date and 12-string guitar. His outgoing friendliness, his ideas on life, and his guitar have added to the success of many a party.

Chris has also played an important part in the school. He was class editor of the ORANGE and WHITE as well as being manager of Varisty tennis team. Academically, Chris is in the top of the class and intends to further his education at a small southern college.

ROBERT LLOYD HUGGINS

Soccer (2); Epsilon Club (2).

Bob is another of the "newer" boys. Coming to N.A. in his Junior year, Robert has quickly become an integral part of the scene at the Academy.

In the colder months of the year, Bob's breath can be seen mingling with that of other members of the soccer team. Robert, like most soccer players, an outspoken advocate of the sport when in the presence of various basketball or wrestling men, is accustomed to shouting, despite goose-pimple-covered legs "But I'm plenty warm!"

Despite intra-sport rivalries, if Bob is not participating in a game, he is an avid supporter thereof and we think that the sometimes hoarse-throated Robert Huggins will be long remembered at N.A. for his willingness to participate.

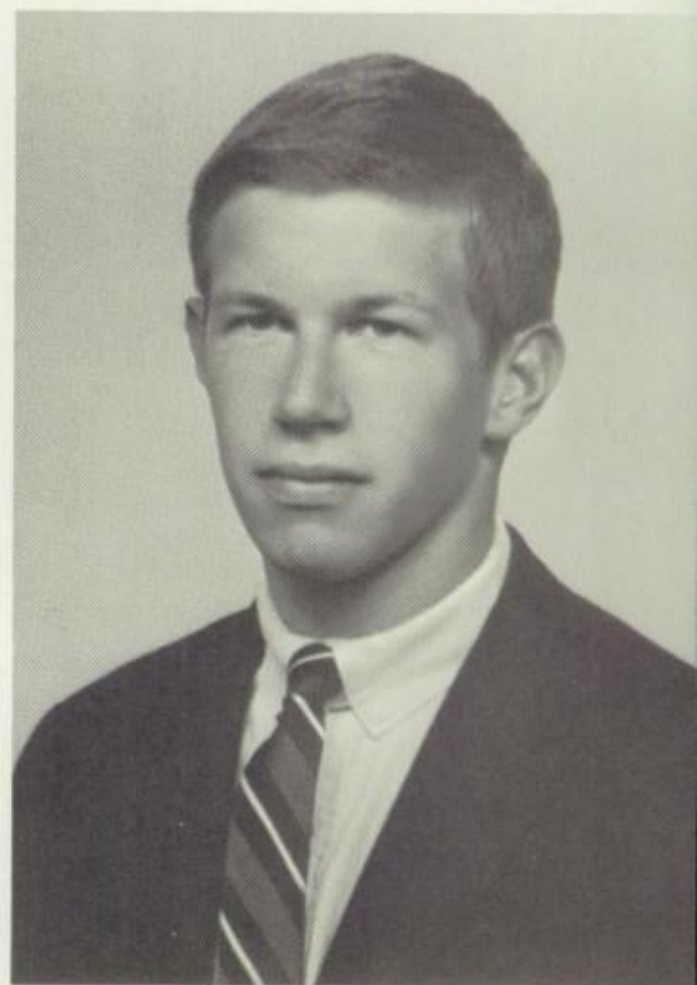

JOHN ARDELL JOHNSTON

Football (1); Wrestling (4); Track (3); Monogram Club (2); ORANGE and WHITE (1).

A thunderous roar echoes throughout the large room: in the center, a figure clad in bright orange sits astride a recumbent contestant on a wrestling mat, unaware of the surrounding chaos.

Is this triumphant grappler Argentina Rocca at the Arena; is it Haystack Calhoun at the Dome? No, it is John Johnston in the Norfolk Academy gym, adding another pin to his record.

Although if questioned in regard to his favorite sport, John would undoubtedly reply with a lengthy discourse on the virtues of wrestling, he also is a member of the football and track teams. Not limiting his activities to athletics, he has also provided valuable assistance on the staff of the ORANGE and WHITE and his friendliness and cheerful smile will long be remembered by his fellow teammates and students.

FREDERICK HAYES MICHAELIS

Football (1); Wrestling (1); Baseball (1).

Mike, a new boy this year, has been a phenomenally successful addition to the Class of '64.

In the first place, he is a football player, and this in itself helped. His friendliness, supplemented with a type of playful aggressiveness, quickly broke the ice and earned him his nickname, "Tuff," which is especially applicable on the football field and in physics class. Although Mike takes a lot of kidding from both students and certain masters, he takes it well and returns the same amount of good-natured banter as he undergoes.

At any rate, Mike has added a lot to the Academy and we only wish that he could have arrived sooner.

NEWTON BYRD MILLER

Football (2); Wrestling (5); Captain (1); Track (4); Monogram Club (5); V. Pres. (1); ORANGE and WHITE (1); Belfry (1).

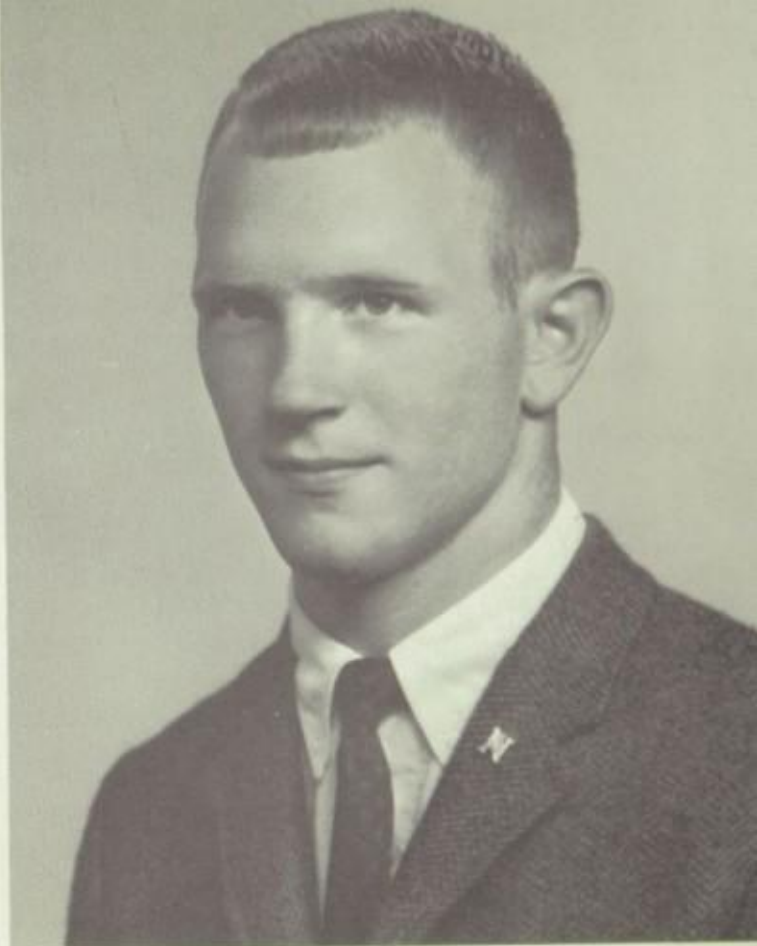

Newt is one of the characters of the Class of '64.

On a typical Friday evening, one can usually find him winding merrily along some road of Va. Beach on his way to a party in Suzie Q., his baby-blue Volkswagen, wrestling gear (or football or track gear, depending upon the season) and perhaps a few books in the "trunk," banjo, and guitar and mandolin in the back seat, and the latest of his female companions in the front.

Obviously this boy is versatile: an excellent sportsman (especially on the wrestling mat), musician, and connoisseur of the finer things of life, Newt is probably remembered most favorably by both his female and male companions for his renditions of folk songs.

Newt is also somewhat of a clown: his interpretations of various animals, masters, and personage, have often brought work on the ORANGE and WHITE to a standstill.

We are sure that Newt with his friendly personality and many talents will be very successful on the great wrestling mat of life.

MICHAEL WALTER MURRAY

Football (1); Tennis Manager (3); Monogram Club (2); Assistant Editor in Charge of Photography ORANGE and WHITE (1); Photographer, BELFRY (1); Literary Mag. (1); Science Club (3); V. Pres. (1).

It's a typical afternoon at Norfolk Academy: from the small back room of the Chemistry Lab, one hears the thick German accents of Mike Murray, photographer, echoing within the tight confines of the dark room.

Mike, although he often talks in a vague sort of foreign language, is definitely not a typical German beer drinker; Mike is a semi-intellectual. His forte is foreign languages, but Mike also displays a strong interest in English, history and math. His phenomenal treatises on various subjects are well known and his spicy additions to theological arguments in Mr. Mac's English class have been very enjoyable.

Finally, in addition to his stalwart intellectualism, Mike is a nice guy and we trust that in his pursuit of higher education, this quality will remain unaltered.

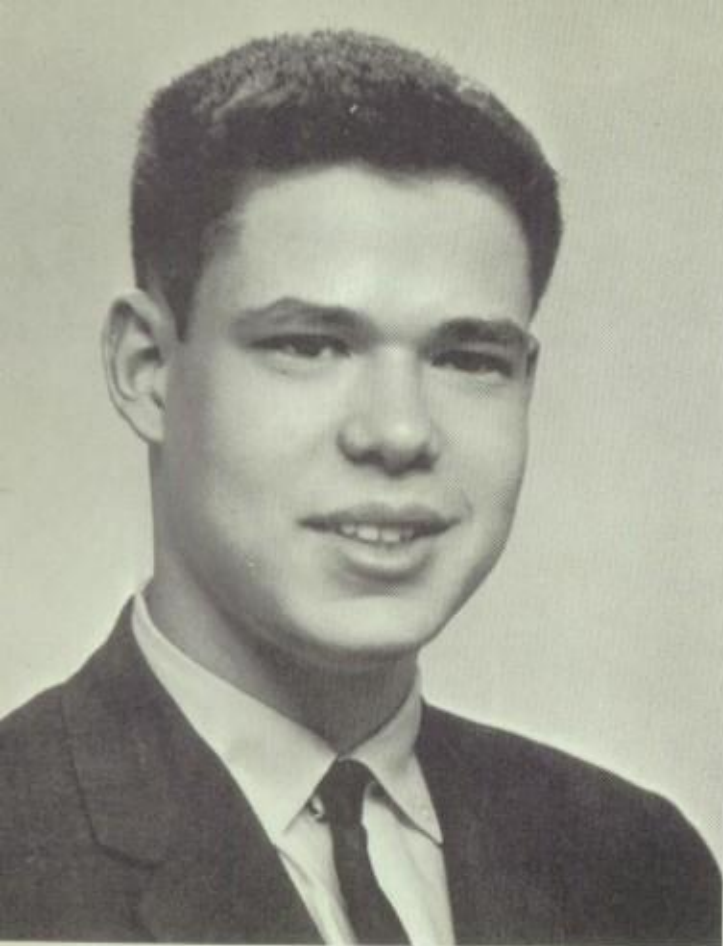

DONALD HENDRIX NASH

Football (3); Capt. (1); Basketball (2); Track (3); Monogram Club (3); Staff Orange and White (3).

Don Nash has quite a reputation at Norfolk Academy: for one thing, he is probably the only member of the senior class who is constantly visited on campus by one of the fair young creatures whom we all so diligently seek after. In addition, "Don Juan" is also probably the only boy in Academy history who occasionally receives poetry from said fair young creatures.

Don's activities, however, are not restricted to this broad field. He is also one of the more active participants on the football team and takes part on both the basketball and track teams. His cheerfulness, evident even on Monday morning, is phenomenal and with his congenial personality and winning smile, we feel certain that Don will be welcome wherever he may go after the finish of his illustrious career at Norfolk Academy.

DAVID MICHAEL PARISER

Tennis (2); Epsilon Club (3); Pres. Epsilon (1); Belfry (2); Editor of Belfry (1); Annual Staff (1).

Thirty years from now, David will probably be a well known Nobel Prize Winner.

One of the few scientists of the Class of '64, Dave has displayed an unusual interest and talent in all things scientific: winning two firsts in two years at the Field Day Science Fair, the young protege of Doc Kepchar also won the grand prize last year at the Tidewater Science Congress and fourth prize in the Medicine and Health Division of the National Science Fair International at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Besides his remarkable accomplishments in the field of science, Dave is also a Co-editor of the well-known Belfry and his cheerful banter often is heard above the clatter of rapidly rolling presses.

Planning to attend one of the better schools, Dave, we feel, is already on his way to success.

JOHN STEVEN PELTZ

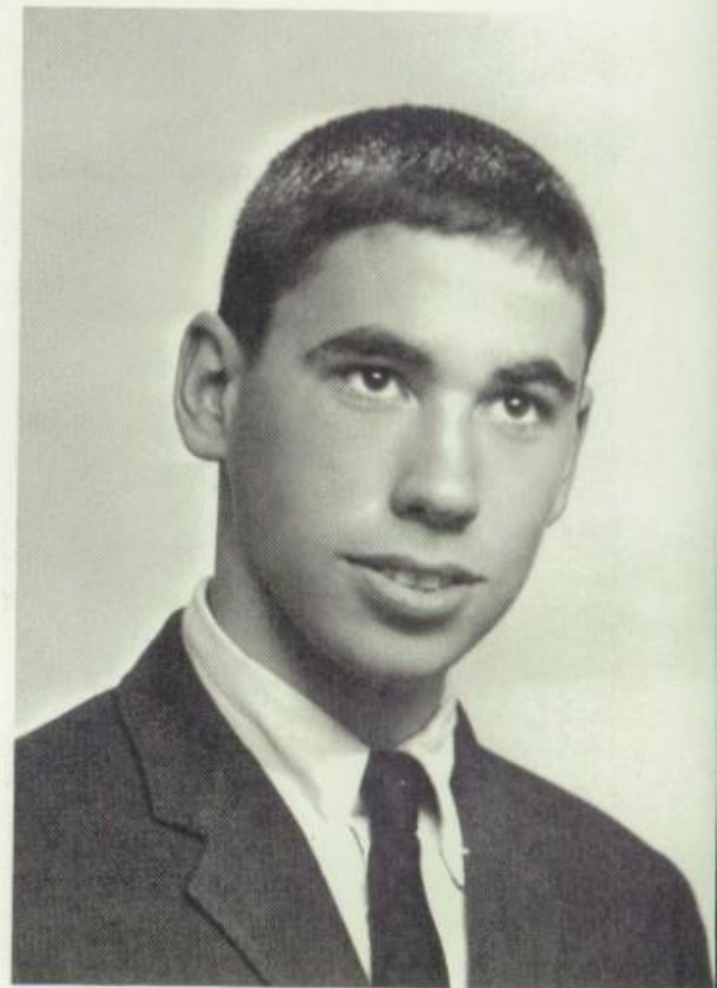

Wrestling (2); Track (1); Epsilon Club (2); Belfry Staff (2); Editor of Belfry (1).

Jack Peltz is one of the most mysterious editors of the Belfry to work behind the closed doors of Blakey's Basement Workshop for quite some time.

Every month, the flag of a different nation is placed on the cold brick wall of the Belfry room: Jack has yet to provide a satisfactory explanation as to the procuring of these banners. This fact, in addition to other questionable ideas has forced masters to issue the following statement: "The Administration is aware of the situation and watching with concern."

Besides his famed (and sinister) newspaper work (behind closed doors, yet), Jack is also noted for his friendliness and an intense interest in English and history.

We hope (actually we're sure) that all of Jack's positive assets will overcome the mysterious elements of his character and provide great happiness.

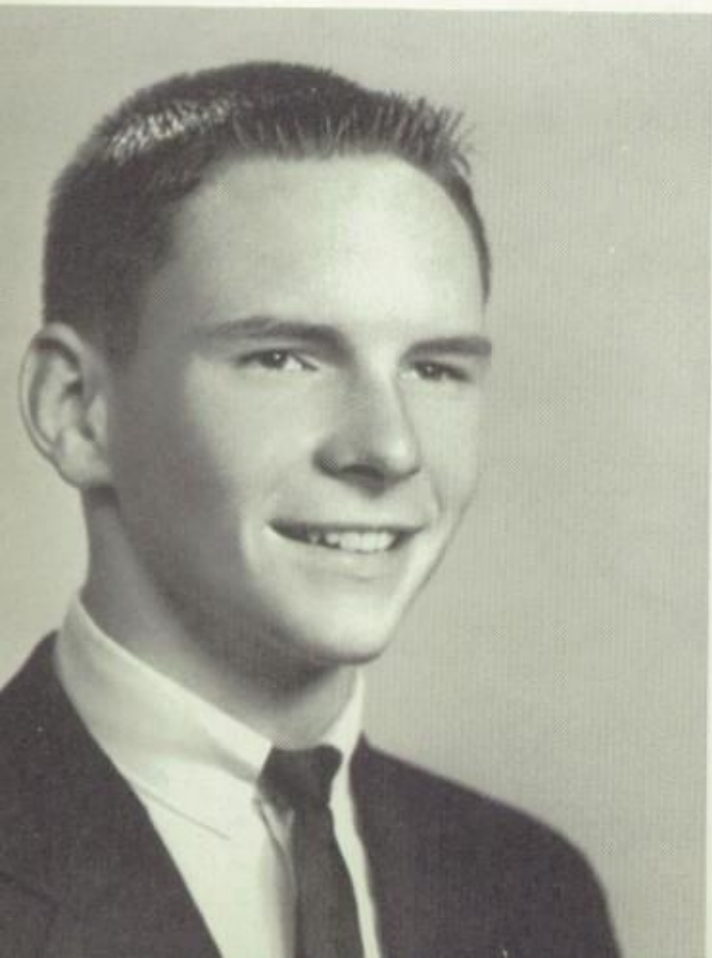

FRANK ROWLAND POWELL, JR.

Football (2); Wrestling (2); Soccer (1); Belfry (1).

"Roland, Roland, Roland," (sung to the tune of "Rawhide") echoes down the halls of N.A. as the jovial Roland Powell proceeds on his way to Physics class.

Although Roland takes a lot of kidding, he takes it in good humor as it is intended. Having participated in football and wrestling, by the time spring rolls around Roland usually takes it easy in the warmer months so as to conserve his energy.

Roland is a friendly fellow: he can often be found in the middle of a conversation in Senior Study Hall and is in general, a convivial fellow.

ALFRED FRANCIS RITTER, JR.

Soccer (2); Tennis (1); Associate Art Editor, Orange and White (1).

Despite Al's frequent trips to Richmond, (a female is involved, of course), we at NA have come to know him well. Al, the curly-haired, co-inventer of the T-bird, (he really is a great dancer), can usually be found in the basement during seventh period occupied with various creative activities, usually consisting of making posters to promote school spirit at football games or somewhat wittier ones to encourage attendance at dances. One of our more artistically inclined seniors, M. Ritter's telltale poster trademark has become famous at NA and he has been a great help to the Orange and White and numerous dance and party committees.

In the winter months, Al's interest turns from posters, dancing and Richmond to soccer, dancing and Richmond. Seriously, Al spends more than half of his time in Norfolk, and Norfolk is glad to have him, for he is an extremely friendly and industrious individual.

BRIAN LAWRENCE SCHOENFELD

Tennis (3); Soccer (2); Staff, Orange and White (1); Epsilon Club (2).

Every morning the student body, marching wearily into the Norfolk Academy Gym for Chapel, is greeted by the smiling countenance of Brian Schoenfeld, pianist.

Brian's bright smile is probably due to the fact that he realizes that he is the only senior who has done all his homework and will not be forced to be overly industrious during the early periods of the morning.

Brian, of course, is one of the more studious members of the Class of '64. He has also devoted several long years of work to the piano and will be remembered at Norfolk Academy for his work on the Orange and White and his participation on the soccer team.

JAMES JULIEN SOUTHERLAND

Football (1); Wrestling (2); Staff, Orange and White (2).

A relative veteran of the Academy, having been within these hallowed walls since first form upper school as Mr. Babcock can testify, Jimmy is one of the Senior Class' most consistent members. Whether on the athletic field or in the classroom he always gives his best as is evidenced by his "I got number 31, Sir" when even Mr. Harvie is stumped by a TrAlG identity.

However, like all of us, J.J. has a lighter side. In fact his favorite amusement is blowing "redneck" tourists off the road with his horn. This is much easier than it sounds since his little red Rambler is equipped with home rigged 1938 Mack truck horns which can emit a very satisfactory blast. Other activities which meet with his constant favor are golf and that teenage failing (?), girls.

LAWERANCE JAGO STETSON, JR.

Football (2); Soccer (2); Key Club (1); Monogram Club (2); Epsilon Club (2); Belfry (2).

Larry Stetson, a semi-newcomer from Suffolk (he arrived his junior year), has rapidly become a part of life (especially the social aspects thereof) at N.A. Larry may be found at almost any party within a fifty-mile radius of his home in Suffolk during the course of an evening. He contributes much through the liberal use of his jovial personality. He has also introduced many girls into Norfolk Academy society, for his well-chosen female companions are from Suffolk or other "foreign" high schools. One senior has recently accused Larry of running an import business without paying the taxes — Congress has not yet investigated. Seriously, Larry does lead a life inside the boundaries of N.A.: he has played an active part on both the soccer and football teams and has contributed much toward the enlightenment of senior study hall.

RICHARD HARRY TILLBERG, JR.

Soccer (1); Track (2); Lit. Mag. Editorial Staff (1); Art Club (1).

Richard Tillberg is one of the undercover humorists of N.A. Although this characteristic of Richard's personality is not overly evident from afar, anyone who is around him long soon becomes aware of his glowing wit and other even less well-known traits.

A minister's son, Richard is definitely a typical Academy boy, mainly due to his dual personality; although quiet and reserved, Richard, we understand, has displayed excellent taste in his activities off campus due primarily to the excellent example set for him by his brother. A scholar of sorts, Richard is also an excellent writer and we feel certain that, with his many talents, he will be well accepted wherever he goes.

WENDALL LANE WINN, JR.

Football (1); Basketball (1); Baseball (3); Belfry Editor (2); Key Club (3); Student Council (3); Treasurer (3); Epsilon Club (1).

Wendall is another of the "senior members" of the senior class: having been here since the first form lower school, he has naturally become a time-honored tradition of N.A. as has his honor roll average and constant use of senior study-hall for, of all things, serious studying. Wendall, of course, does not spend all of his time on the books; he has participated for several years in both football and baseball, and his stalwart leadership as an editor of the The Belfry has helped to put that worthy publication on the way this year.

The next project for the studious side of Mr. Winn, we understand, is a scientific attempt at understanding women. From our point of view, no matter how successful Wendall becomes in his later life, this study, if it is completed, will be his crowning glory.

KEY CLUB

Mr. Stuart
Sponsor

The Key Club, the high school branch of the Kiwanis Club, is, like its sponsoring civic organization, a service club. It works closely with its parent club and has a Kiwanis representative at its meetings. Some of its services include selling Academy book covers, sponsoring a spring dance, providing for athletic pictures in the lunch room, and gathering baskets of food for needy families at Christmas. The Club also provides a coke machine at the South end of the basement for the use of the entire upper school. The membership of the Club, which is invitational, consists of nineteen outstanding boys from the upper three forms of the school.

MONOGRAM CLUB

The Monogram Club is an organization composed of the boys who have earned their varsity letters in one or more of the Academy's seven varsity sports.

The Club's chief aim is to maintain enthusiasm for the school sports by providing pep rallies and posters. The Club also sponsors the Christmas Dance. A new feature of the Club this year was the forming of the Executive Committee comprised of all the boys who have three or more letters.

SPEAKING SOCIETIES

This year, during advisory period, Mr. MacConochie and Mr. Blakey, introduced the juniors and seniors to a new speech program, which replaced the careers class. Through this program, each student presents four speeches each year in an effort to perfect his ability to speak publicly.

In its second year as a paper concerned only with the news of the Academy, The Belfry has carried on the standards of work pioneered by last year's staff. The purpose of the paper has been to provide news readable to the student body without abandoning any of the high journalistic standards that it has maintained. Toward this end, Belfrey staff members have attended conferences, notably the Columbia Scholastic Press Seminar, and have participated in a number of exchange programs with other nearby papers.

The Belfry is published monthly eight times a year. Under the sponsorship of Mr. George T. Blakey, more responsibility has been assigned to the editor-in-chief, David Pariser, and the other staff members. Some of the new features instituted by the 1964 staff include: "Bulldogging with Dudley" and "Bats in the Belfry."

Working in pairs for the first time, this year's Staff sold a record number of ads. FOOTBALL — 1963

This year Coach Jones faced a unique situation in early August — he had, as usual, few returning linemen and he was completely without a man over 200 pounds. The heaviest lineman was George Sebren at left tackle. Next to him at end was Kent Woodward. These were the only men over 180 pounds. Ted Doolin played left guard while Newty Miller held down the center position. The right side of the line found Don Nash at guard, Joe McNeal at tackle with Bill Garrison anchoring the right end. In the backfield, John Heilig and Tom Reuger rotated at the quarterback spot. The halfbacks were Dudley Cocke and Ed Underwood, and Dick Lahey played fullback.

When the opponents had the ball, some defensive specialists came in. Among these were regular linebackers, Will Stacey and "Tuff" Michaelis and lineman Chris Pinner.

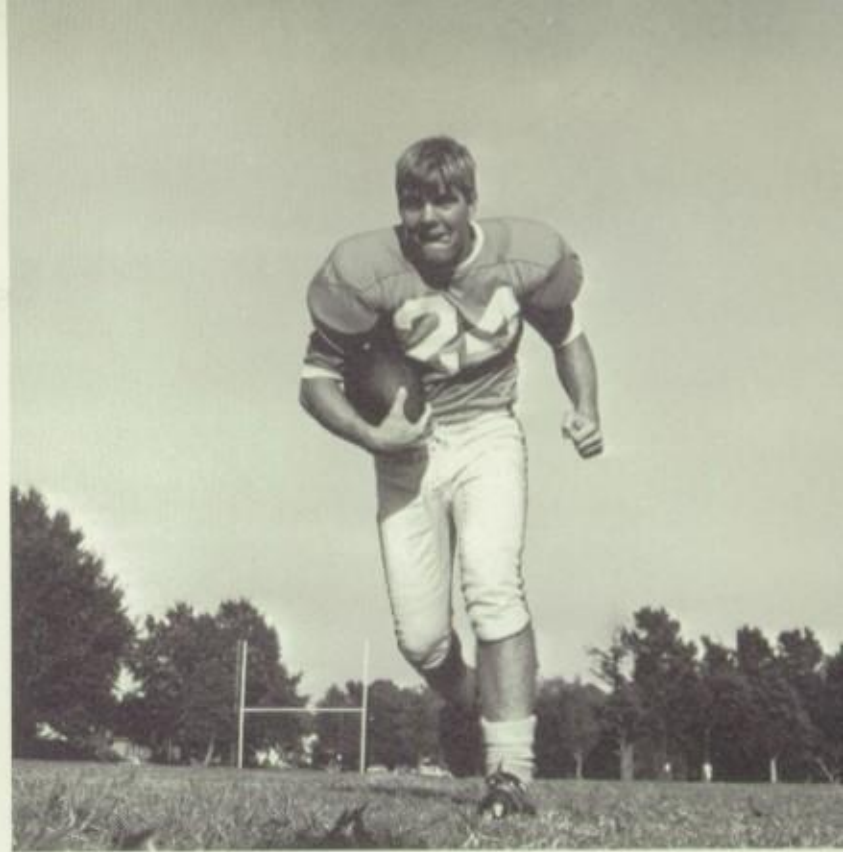

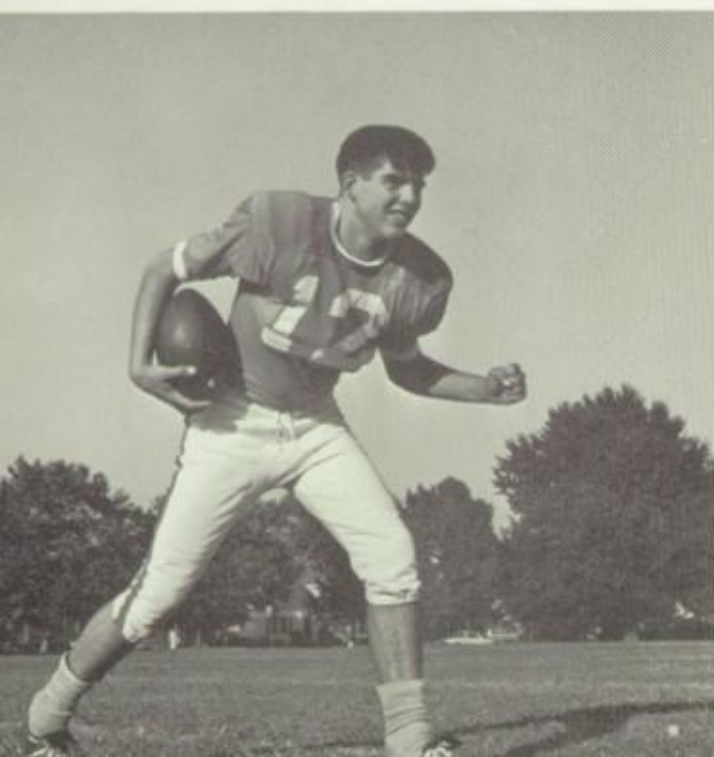

COACHES' AWARD NEWTY MILLER

Newty Miller was selected by the coaches as an ideal representative of Norfolk Academy football. The award is made annually to the member of the team who demonstrated both desire and teamwork above that normally expected of a player. Whether he was snapping the ball to the quarterback or making tackles on defense, he showed the example of sportsmanship that has long been a trademark of Academy football.

BEST BACK DUDLEY COCKE

The choice of Dudley Cocke as the "Best Back of 1963" was an obvious one, for number 12 at half-back provided the spark in the Academy offense. During the season Dudley pushed across for a total of 5 touchdowns for 30 points. In addition to his running skill and consistent backfield performance, Dudley emerged as a top receiver of Heilig's and Reuger's aeriels.

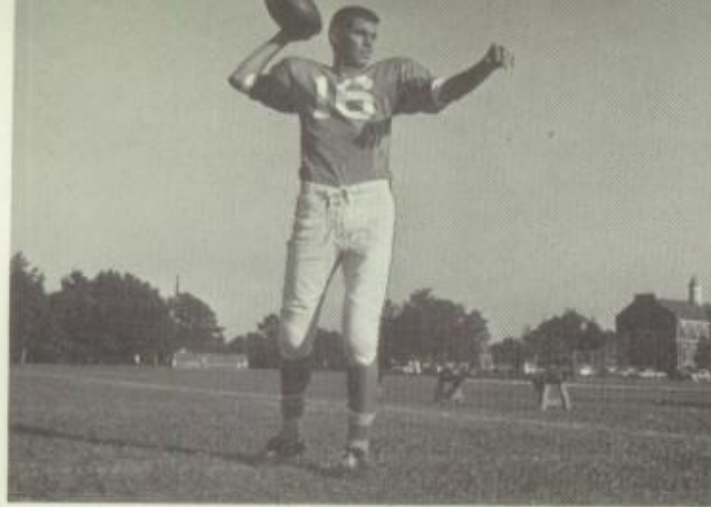

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER KENT WOODWARD

For the past three years Kent Woodward has played end for the Academy eleven. In his first two years on the Varsity, Kent found himself double-teamed by opponents as he was the prime target of the Academy's passing game. This year the Tri-Captain was dreaded because of his stalwart defensive play. Without a doubt, versatile Kent Woodward was our most valuable player.

MOST DESERVING DON NASH

This year Don Nash was selected by the team as the "Most Deserving Player of 1963" for his contributions to the team both on the field and off. Don, a three-year veteran, played guard and linebacker with an authority that refuted his mere 145 pound frame. A tireless worker and a hustler, the Tri-Captain proved most able at whipping the team into a fighting spirit during both practices and games.

N.A. 33 HAMPTON ROADS ACADEMY

In the opening game of the 1963 season the Bulldogs gained a resounding triumph over Hampton Roads Academy on their home field. Early in the first quarter the Bulldogs broke loose on a 42 yard run by half-back Dudley Cocke to put the ball on Hampton Roads 18 yard line. Several plays later half-back Eddie Underwood plunged over from the 18 yard line to score, with George Sebren kicking the extra point. The Bulldogs scored again in the first quarter on a 28 yard run by Cocke, with the extra point being good. As a result of a long pass to end Bill Castle the Academy was again brought within scoring distance early in the quarter. One play later Cocke ran 29 yards for the touchdown with Sebren again adding the extra point. A Hampton Roads fumble on their own 16 yard line was recovered by fullback Will Stacey, again giving the Bulldogs the ball. Quarter-back Tommy Reguger threw to end Jay Harbort for another touchdown, making the score at the half 27-0. As a result of tightening Hampton Roads defence and the fact that the second and third strings were in, the Bulldogs were able to score only once more. During the third quarter as a result of a 40 yard drive quarter-back Buzzy Heidt plunged two yards for the final score in the game. Only once did Hampton Roads threaten when they were stopped by the clock in the fourth quarter.

N.A. 6 VIRGINIA BEACH 35

The Bulldogs played arch-rivals, the Virginia Beach Seahawks, under the Beach lights at night. Greatly hampered by injuries and eligibility rules, the Bulldogs were missing several key players. The first score in the game came in the middle of the second quarter on a 3 yard plunge as a result of a long Seahawk running drive. The Bulldogs immediately struck back as a long pass play put the Academy within scoring range. Half-back Dudley Cocke ran the four yards needed for a touchdown. The Seahawks immediately ran a similar pass play and scored, adding the point by running making the half-time score 14-6. In the third quarter the Seahawks scored three times on long running drives adding the points the same way. The Bulldog defense, however, tightened up, allowing no more scoring in the fourth quarter and making the final score 35-6.

N.A. 0 CHRIST CHURCH 7

The Bulldogs travelled to Saluda to play the Christ Church Seahawks at their home field for the Bulldogs first away game. This was the first time the Academy has scheduled Christ Church in football in several years. The game was characterized by strong defence on both sides as the Bulldogs held their heavier rivals to one touch-down. The game's only score came late in the second quarter as Christ Church broke loose and drove from the Bulldog 46 yard line to the 14 and then connected on a pass to the right half-back for the touchdown. The extra point was added on a run. However, the Academy penetrated Seahorse territory several times during the game, once coming as close as the Christ Church 20 yard line on a fourth down play.

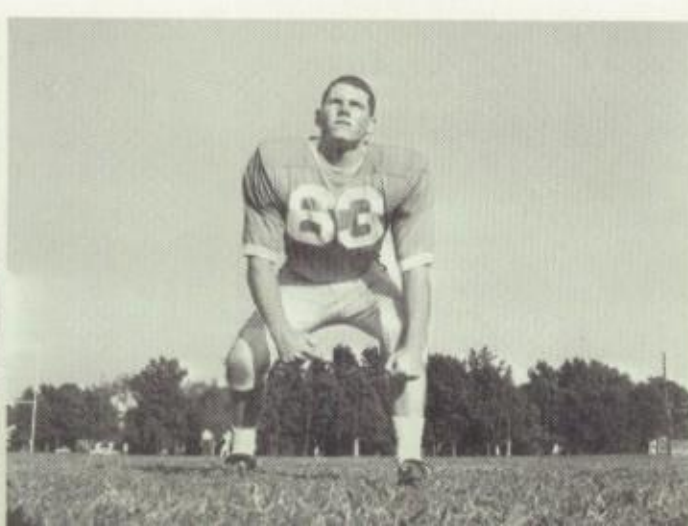

N.A. 0 COLLEGIATE 41

The Bulldogs returned to their field on October 12 for their homecoming game against the Collegiate Cougars. Unfortunately the Cougars had improved greatly over last year's team in size and speed. The Cougars had little trouble in penetrating Bulldog defenses, scoring in the first quarter on a pass which terminated a 70 yard rushing drive. They ran the extra point. In the second quarter the Cougars plunged on yard for a second touchdown and added the point, making the half-time score 14-0. In the third quarter the Cougars again scored and in the fourth quarter Collegiate broke loose to add three more touchdowns, but missed one point, making the final score 41-0. The Bulldogs, however, put up a good fight, forcing the Cougars back to their own 2 yard line at one time during the third quarter.

N.A. 0 V.E.S. 21

The Bulldogs made the long trip to Lynchburg on the morning of the VES game. In the afternoon the two teams collided before a large Homecoming crowd. There was no scoring in the first period, during which the ball was transferred back and fourth on fumbles and punts. In the next quarter the heavy backfield of V.E.S. began to show its ability with a sustained drive. Finally the VES goliaths pushed their way in for a score. The Academy rested during the half, convinced that they could still overcome the fired-up home team. When play resumed, the Bulldogs actually did mount several drives but lost the ball before reaching pay dirt. With no support from the offense, the defense could not keep back the Lynchburgers, who gained two more touchdowns and a safety to complete the scoring.

N.A. 13 ST. CHRISTOPHER'S 41

The Bulldogs next journeyed to Richmond to play a heavier and more experienced St. Christopher's. St. Chris dominated the first quarter on long drives, scoring twice and kicking the extra points against a shaken Bulldog defense. However, the Bulldogs came back strong in the second quarter with halfback Dudley Cocke scoring from the one yard line and George Sebren adding the needed point. This climaxed a 68-yard Bulldog drive. Later in the quarter an attempted 21-yard field goal by Sebren fell slightly short. St. Christopher's regained its balance in the third quarter, scoring on a 75-yard kick-off return and on a 52-yard run. They then opened the third quarter with a 37-yard touchdown run. Capitalizing on a recovered St. Christopher's fumble, the Bulldogs struck back as halfback David Paul caught a 10-yard pass from quarterback Tommy Rueger for a touchdown. However, St. Christopher's scored again making the final score 41-13.

N.A. 7 NORFOLK CATHOLIC 0

The Bulldogs met their traditional rival Norfolk Catholic on the N.A. field on a clear afternoon and suitably made amends for last year's 0-13 score. The Bulldogs broke loose early in the second quarter as halfback Dudley Cocke ran 9 yards for the touchdown, and George Sebren kicked the extra point. This came as a result of a 61 yard rushing drive. Strong Catholic defenses managed to hold the Bulldogs for the rest of the game. The Academy did penetrate several more times into Catholic territory, once coming as close as the Catholic six-yard line. Fired-up Bulldog defenses held the offensive gains of Catholic to a safe margin, once tackling a Catholic back 31 yards behind the line of scrimmage on the Crusaders' 13-yard line.

N.A. 0 FISHBURNE 26

To complete the season, the Bulldogs fought the Cadets of Fishburne Military Academy. The Cadets' backfield, led by Dick Sidle, completely overwhelmed the Academy defense. Stalwart performances were given in the line by Woodward, Doolin, Nash and Miller of the Bulldogs; nevertheless N.A. was never able to gain much yardage.

This year the Junior Varsity football team had the most successful season of any J.V. team to date. Under the capable leadership of Casey Jones, Mike Russell, Gordon Nash, and Tim Golden, the team roared to victories over Maury, Virginia Beach, Catholic, Cox, Kempsville before being upset by the City League Comets. Coach Marshall Stewart did a fine job in his first year of coaching and the Varsity is eagerly awaiting some of the boys from this team.

VARSDITY BASKETBALL

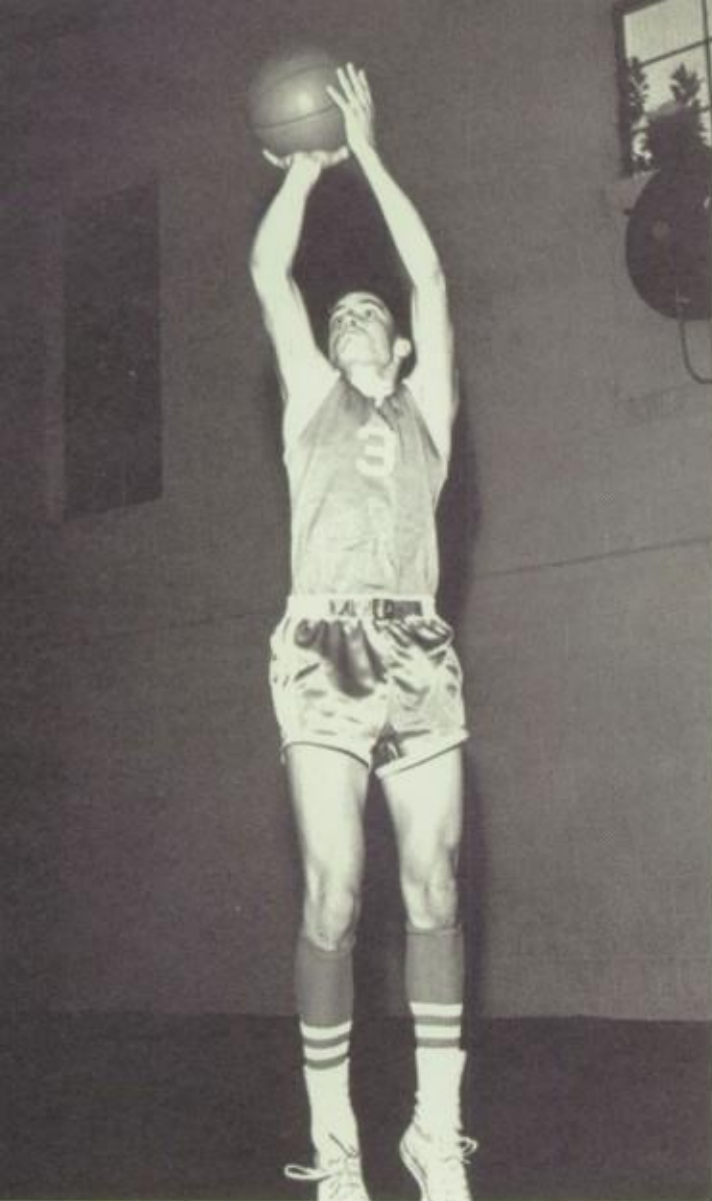

Coach Corley

So far this season, the Varsity Basketball team has been plagued by two major weaknesses — inexperience and a lack of height. Mr. David Corley, the new coach, has been forced almost completely to rebuild the team and has drawn heavily from last year's J.V. talent. Working with these younger boys, Coach Corley has built a team which has shown consistent improvement throughout the season especially in regard to teamwork.

Bill Garrison, a junior, heads up the scoring and is closely followed by Bill Mayo a precocious freshman athlete, who should improve (and grow) in coming season. Tom Reuger, another junior, follows closely behind Mayo, as does Windy Bill, a sophomore, and Gresh Bayne, the starting team's only senior. As the averages show, the scoring has been about equally distributed among the starting five where averages are within three points of each other.

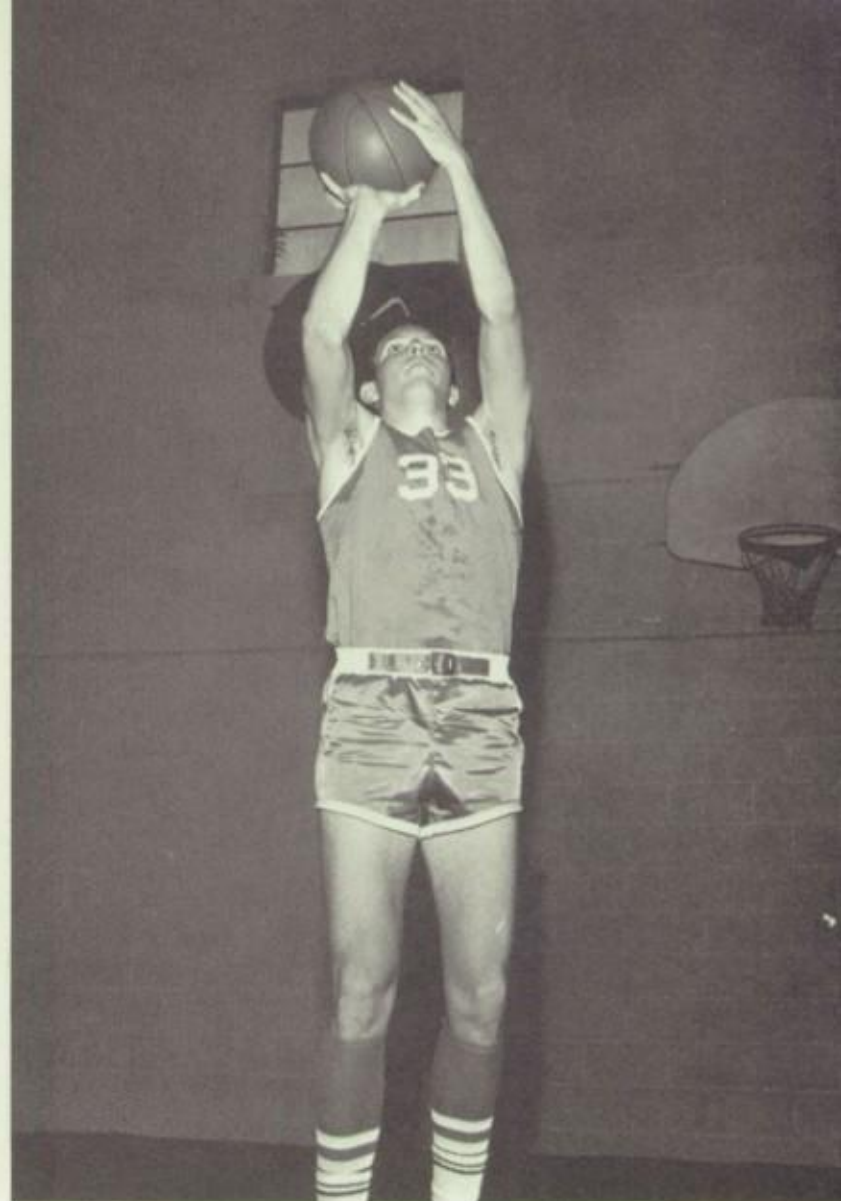

Starting the season against heavily favored Norfolk Catholic, Coach Corley and his boys did a good job but still lost 54-41.

The game was followed by heartbreaking losses to Virginia Beach and St. Christopher's and another to Christ Church. It was at this game that the team really began to show its potential; leading at the half as a result of excellent team play, it lost ground in the third quarter and was heavily outscored. In the fourth quarter, it regained its touch and, although we outscored Christ Church, we still could not regain our former advantage.

The Academy then suffered a close defeat at the hands of James Blair and finally broke the ice by defeating Hampton Roads Academy 42-39. We were beaten by Collegiate but came very close to victory in a record game against Virginia Beach (again losing it in the third quarter).

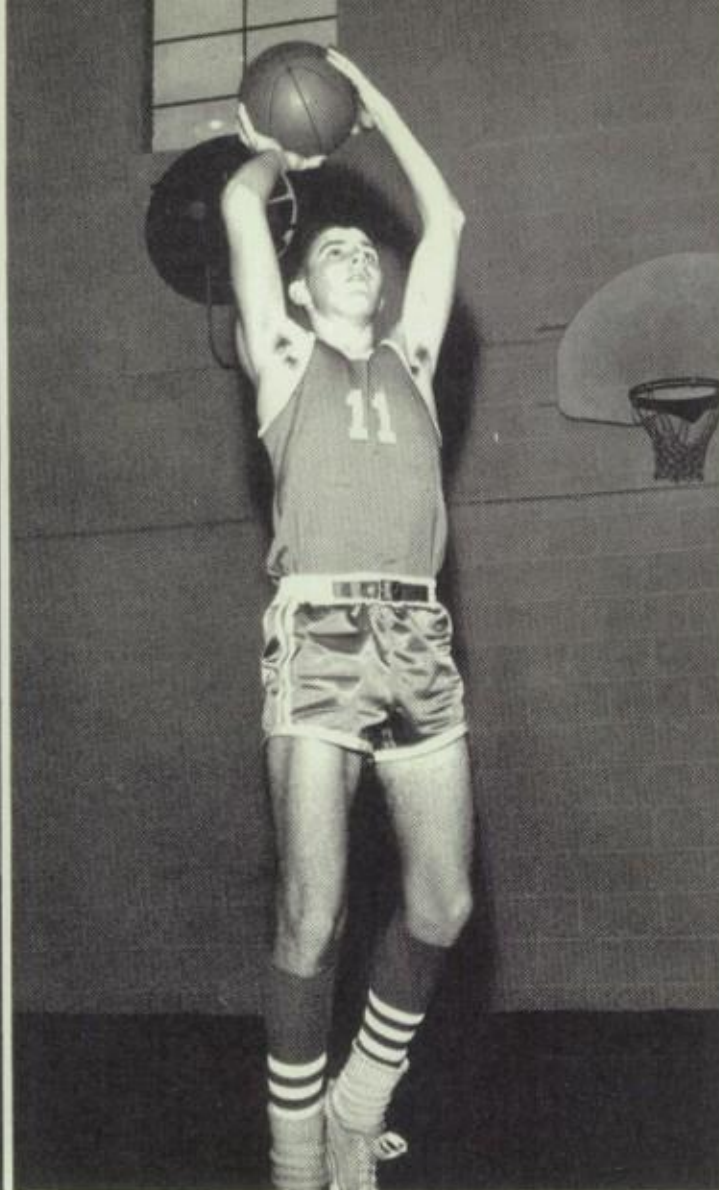

Finally, on January 17, the team played a great game against Christ Church, showing its ability by winning 60-47. We trust the rest of the season will be on a note similar to that of the last game.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Despite a lack of experience, Mr. Stewart, the J.V.'s new coach and his team are looking forward to future games and wins. Losing the entire J.V. team, with the exception of Ted Wood, to the Varsity, Mr. Stewart is doing a good job in training young talent such as Weldon Bradshaw, Mike Rashkind, and Bob Collector and we wish him the best of luck and a successful season.

VARSIITY WRESTLING

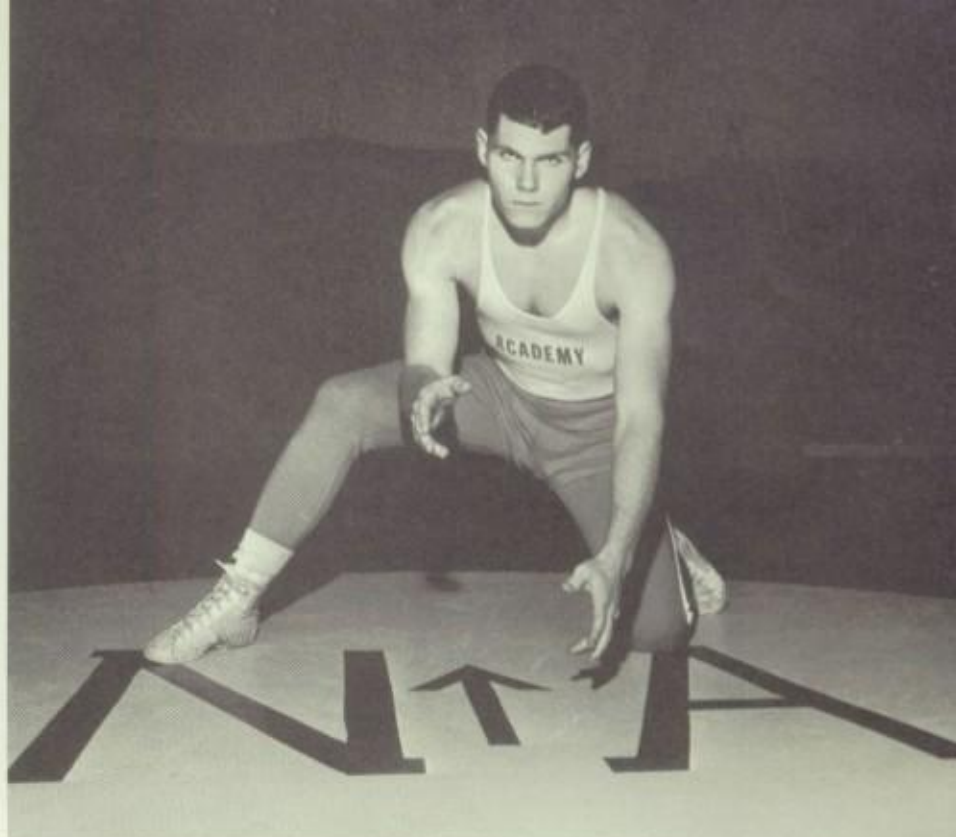

Newty Miller

The 1963-64 wrestling team is again experiencing a rebuilding year. The grapplers, except for Mike Michaelis, the new 154-pounder, who is showing great promise, and Jeff Weisberg, at 95, who is gaining in experience every day, have all had wrestling experience before this season. Dixie Walker at 103, up from last year's second team, and Gordon Nash at 112 are showing fast development, as is the whole team under the excellent coaching of Armand Taylor. Barry Levin, one of the team's co-captains and four-year veteran, with a 2-2-2 record, is filling the gap left at 120 by Dick Musick's departure. Jay Theimeyer at 127 and Steve Steinhilber at 133, both juniors, have gained maturity and added polish to their wrestling this season. Mike Russell, a sophomore at 138, has shown a feeling for proper maneuvers and great spirit on the mat. Newty Miller, a co-captain at 145, is the only remaining member of the original 1958-59 wrestling team. Newty has an outstanding record this year, winning five matches and tying two. The Bulldog's upper weights are filled, for the most part by seniors. Mike Michaelis is at 154, John Johnson, another four-year veteran, who is gaining balance and coordination, is at 165, and Roland Powell at 180 has shown a great deal of improvement this year. Jim McClane at 155 wrestles heavyweight and must be commended for the courage and fight he shows against opponents who outweigh him by as much as fifty pounds.

Barry Levin

Even though the wrestlers have had only one resounding victory, Catholic (40-8), they are not discouraged and feel that having wrestled such outstanding teams as Granby, Norview and Cox, they will win the majority of their remaining matches. The future looks bright for the wrestling program. This year the J.V. team has its own wrestling program and is showing the ability that will build the Wrestling Team up to its peak again. It must be noted here that the J.V.'s have won overwhelming victories over Frederick M.A. and Cox.

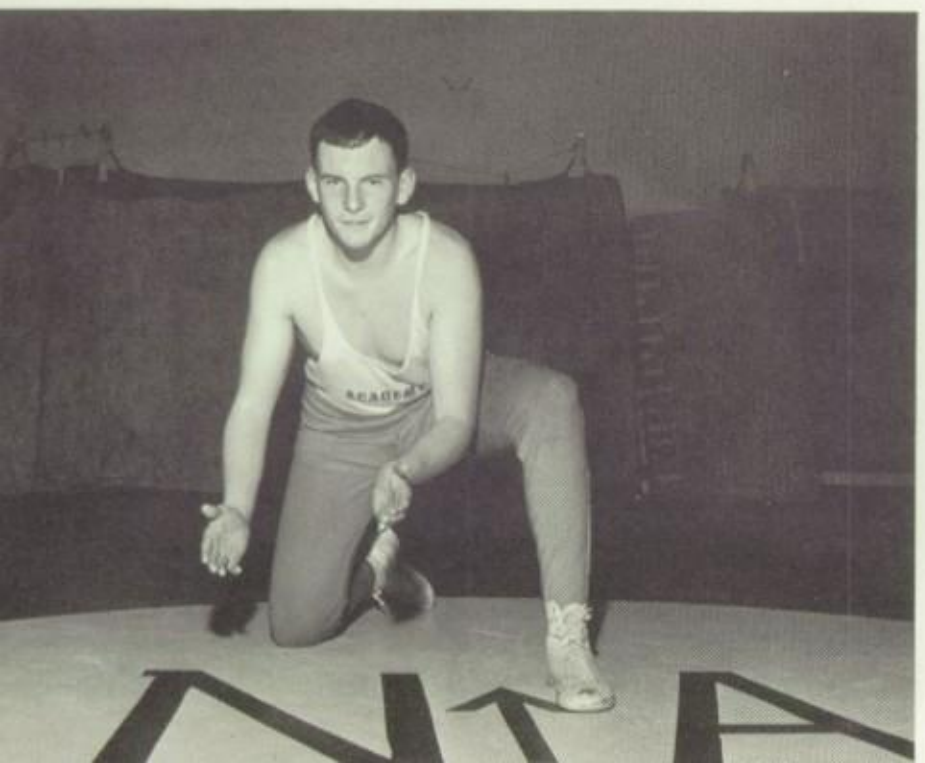

Development and growth are the key words of the Wrestling Team this year. We wish the grapplers the best of luck in their remaining matches.

VARSITY SOCCER

This year's soccer team, besides having the excellent coaching of Mr. Tyler and Mr. Shields, has been graced with the experienced leadership of Mr. Riley. Coming to the Academy from England, the new coach will undoubtedly aid the team's effort for its usual winning season. Not only does the team have fine coaching; it also enjoys the leadership of George Sebren and Ed Underwood, the two veteran co-captains.

The captains were elected at the beginning of the season by an unusually large team. Although the team is large, it did lose many of its valuable players last year but, despite this handicap, is functioning remarkably well. The vacant positions have been filled by such promising members as Carter Gunn, Roy Shulman, Jeff Edwards, Ed Underwood, Tommy Sellers and Joe McNeal. The school and team are sure that next year these boys will lead the soccer team to still another winning season.

So far this season the team has played five games and amassed a 2-2-1 record. The first game saw Roy Shulman, the center forward, make the goal to tie with St. Christopher's in Richmond. The second and fifth games were both losses to Christchurch, in which the other team made fast goals, defeating the Academy by scores of two and one to nothing respectively. These two losses are all that the team expects to experience this season.

Shulman and Sellers against Christ Church.

A close one.

On the brighter side, two matches against Hampton Roads Academy and Collegiate of Richmond saw Academy victory: Carter Gunn's three goals and Jeff Edwards' one gave the team a 4-0 score over Hampton Roads, and Joe McNeal's single score gave victory to the squad over Collegiate.

With four more games left to win this year, the Academy team is quite confident and expects a good season. The school looks forward to next year's team, and is sure that the spirit of the squad will overcome the loss of members Larry Stetson, Jack Peltz, Richard Burroughs, George Sebren and Bob Huggins after this season.

BASEBALL — 1963

Coached by Mr. Hal White, the varsity baseball team had a rather erratic year during 1963, winning two and dropping ten. However, many of the scores were extremely close as the record shows.

Pitching was provided by a three-man staff, John Heilig, Joel Cohen, and Dick Lahey. The starting line-up was completed by Bill Castle at first, Mike Russell at second, Marty Wittersheim at third, Kent Woodward at shortstop and John Hansen, Windy Bill, and Carl Womack in the outfield.

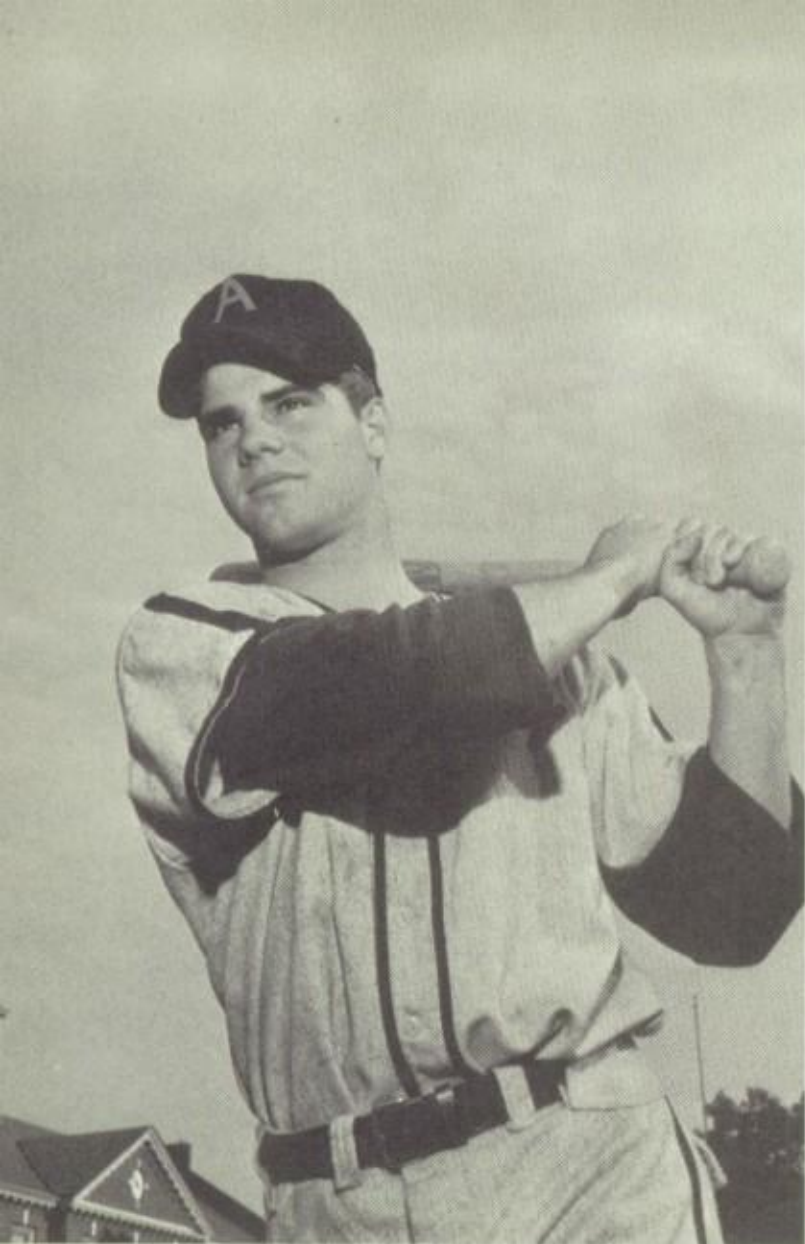

Leading hitter was junior John Hansen with a .368 average. The leading pitcher was John Heilig with a record of 2 wins and 7 losses.

The highlights of the season were Catholic and Virginia Beach games. In the Catholic game Heilig pitched a brilliant 5 hitter, spacing the hits throughout the game. In the Frederick game, Heilig, Cohen and Hansen led off with homers and 2 other home runs were hit later in the game.

The team looks forward to a good season in 1964. Returning lettermen John Heilig, Windy Bill, Kent Woodward, Dick Lahey and Mike Russell will give it strength as will other returning team members and upcoming junior varsity players.

J. V. BASEBALL

During the 1963 baseball season, the Norfolk Academy J.V. team showed vast improvement over the teams of previous years. Under the competent coaching of Mr. Bob James, the team showed an excellent fighting spirit, as demonstrated in the games in which the team was outclassed. Although weak in pitching, they played good defensive ball. The J.V. lined up with Mike Wood at first, Gordon Nash at second, Bob Collector at third, and Timothy Golden at shortstop. The outfield was manned by Joseph Duffy in left field, Bill Mayo in center, and Bill Romm in right. The catching chores were shared by James Russell, before his being brought up to the varsity, and Mike Knudsen, who came down from the varsity. These boys by no means played all of the time, for the J.V. had many fine substitutes, who came through in the clutch on several occasions.

the half-mile and also participated along with Grenfell, Rippey, and Don Nash in the mile relay. Bill Castle and David Paul added points to Bevernick's total in sprints.

In April, in the Virginian-Pilot Relays, the track team put on an outstanding performance, capturing two first places and two second places from the four events entered. Graduation took away several of the top stars, but the coming season should be even more successful with a well-balanced team returning.

Bill Sweeney, Dubby Wynne, Bill Garrison, Dudley Cocke, John Winter, Tommy Rueger, Wiley Wood, Buzz Heidt.

The 1963 tennis season was the finest in the school's history. The team lost only one match out of the fourteen played and was probably the state's second best team!

The tennis ladder was very fluid during the season; Dubby Wynne was the only man to play consistently in the same position; number 1. Dubby, the state eighteen-and-under champion, led the team to its outstanding record. Tommy Rueger and Bill Sweeney were the no. 2 and no. 3 singles players, usually in that order. John Winter and Wiley Wood filled the four and five positions, while Bill Garrison, Dudley Cocke, and Buzz "give-em-grief" Heidt fought for the remaining sixth position. The two losers played doubles. All but Wynne and Sweeney will be back for the 1964 season.

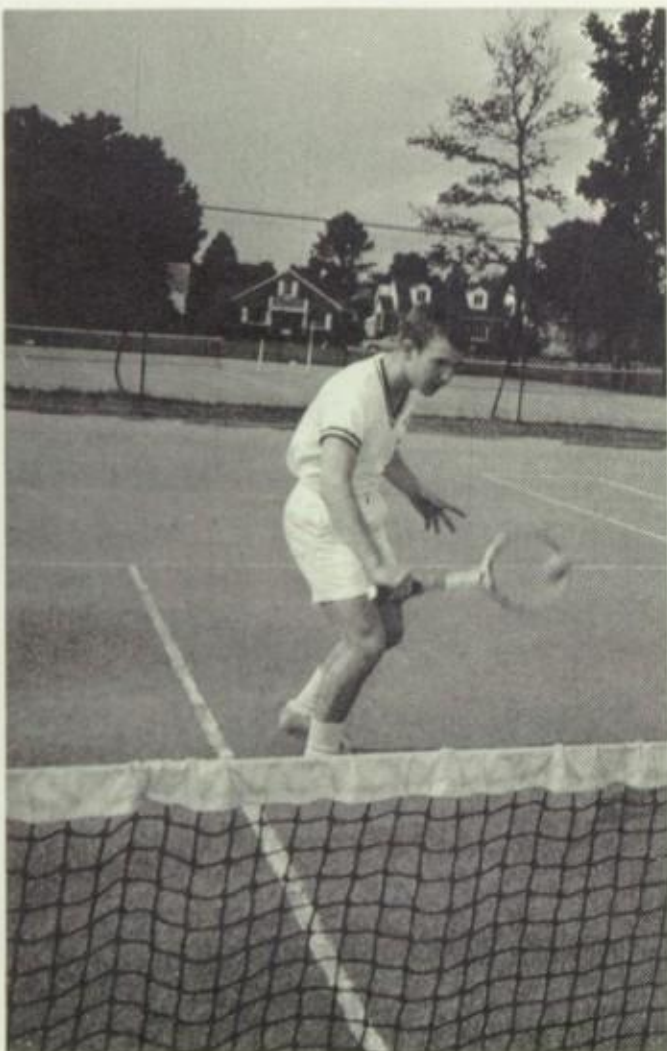

The team opened the season against high-ranked Thomas Jefferson of Richmond, whom they handily defeated, 7-2. They followed up the T.J. victory with quick wins over Frederick Military Academy, 9-0 and Maury, 8-1. St. Christopher's was the Academy's next opponent, whom they defeated, 6-3. After traveling to Woodberry Forest, the Bulldog netters lost their first and only match of the year to the best team in the state, a team which had players from all up and down the East Coast. The Bulldog's spirit was not dampened, however, and they came roaring back with a decisive 8-1 victory over Episcopal High School the following day. The next week, the team faced state-champion Suffolk, a team the Academy had never beaten. However this year was different; the Suffolk Raiders were skillfully defeated in the most brilliant match of the year. After the win over Suffolk, the season was comparatively easy. The Bulldogs defeated Frederick, 9-0, William and Mary Frosh, 9-0, Granby, 9-0, Maury, 8-1, St. Christopher's 9-0, and ended the season by crushing Norfolk Catholic, 9-0. In between the Granby and Maury matches, the Academy once more leveled perennially strong Suffolk.

Thus the tennis team had compiled a brilliant 13-1 record, but what of the future? Things appear to be getting worse for the Bulldog opponents; all but Dubby Wynne and Bill Sweeney are returning, while most of the other teams lose three or four players. With the added experience that the team members have gained during the summer playing in various tournaments, the Academy should have one of the finest teams in the state for several years to come.

The Bull-pups displayed much poise and skill for players of their age and it is hoped that the varsity will benefit in the next few years from their talent.

MIDDLE SCHOOL SPRING ATHLETICS

ACTIVITIES

PLANS FOR THE NEW NORFOLK ACADEMY

The sum of $450,000 now measures the distance between hope and reality for the joint building program of The Norfolk Academy and The Country Day School. Generosity, friendship, and a belief in what these two schools already stand for—these have sent the fund-raising campaign two thirds of the way along the road, an impressive distance, $800,000.

Meanwhile the schedule calls for the bulldozers to rumble into action just five months from today, in June of 1964. Moving date will be the fall of 1965, only fourteen school months away.

To meet these dates, the Expansion Committee, under the chairmanship of Mr. Richard F. Welton, III, is putting in long, hard hours of work. The Committee, representing both schools, includes: Mr. W. Peyton May; Mr. Julian Lawrence; Mr. Harry B. Price, Jr.; Mr. S. Barron Segar; Mr. Hunter C. Phelan; Mr. S. T. Northern; Mr. Edward R. Baird; Mr. R. Lawson Miles, Jr.; Mr. R. Cosby Moore; Mr. S. F. Royster; and Dr. Wickham Taylor.

As the fund drive continues, Williams and Tazewell, a Norfolk architectural firm, is getting ready to draw up plans for the new school. In this work they will be assisted by a representative of a widely experienced firm of educational planners: Englehart, Englehart, and Leggett of New York. Mr. Leggett has visited the Academy and Country Day School and has discussed a brochure of tentatively proposed space requirements with a variety of people representing boards, administrations, and faculties of both schools. There will be further visits to the schools and close observation of their operations and activities. All this is a necessary prelude in order that realistic recommendations about classrooms, laboratories, library space, and athletic facilities may be made to Williams and Tazewell. As you are no doubt aware from the Alumni Letter, Mr. Brad Tazewell will speak about the new school at the Alumni Christmas Luncheon at the Lafayette Yacht Club, on Friday, December 27, at 12:30 p.m.

The site of the new school, chosen in the fall of 1962, is near the eastern edge of Norfolk, and close by the intersection of U. S. 13 and of Interstate 64, now in the process of construction. Every foot of the school's 55.26 acres is usable land—real breathing space compared with the Academy's present ten or twelve non-swamp acres and County Day's total lack of any playing field area. A glance at a city map will reveal the fact that the new Norfolk Academy is at the very heart of the expanding Norfolk-Virginia Beach complex.

Mr. R. Cosby Moore, member of the Board of Directors of the County Day School, has characterized the new school as "a great opportunity for our area and city." There will be room for three hundred boys and two hundred girls in grades eight through twelve. It is contemplated that class sizes will remain substantially the same, twenty or under, but that there will be three sections of boys and two of girls.

Such an expansion will make possible what Mr. Massey has called a more "total education." Mr. Massey expressed confidence that, when both the student body and the faculty are expanded, many new courses will be made available. The Language Department will add German and possibly other languages to its present offering of French, Spanish, and Latin. The Science Department will add to its program advanced courses in biology and chemistry. The History, English, and Mathematics Departments will similarly be able to expand, not only their course offerings, but the present Honors and Advanced Placement Programs. The present modest offerings of music, art, and drama will be broadened and deepened.

The amount of money available will determine the priorities of the erection of various structures at the new site. The determining philosophy is that it is preferable to do well a limited number of buildings, rather than to cut corners on a somewhat larger number of facilities. The minimum plan contemplates the construction of one classroom building and an administrative building. The latter will house the administrative offices, a refectory, science and language laboratories, and a library. The other two buildings, a classroom building for boys and the gymnasium-auditorium, will go up at a later date as the proper funds become available. The Academy is determined to make the move without incurring any debt.

A greater opportunity for service will also exist at the present location of the Academy. When Forms II through VI (eighth through twelfth grades) move to the new location, vastly expanded facilities will become available to the present Lower School, which can then go from its present size of over 150 to approximately 250 boys.

This is the situation as it stands at the moment, and these are the facts. But there are some facts of a different order, intangible perhaps, but of equal significance.

First of all, there is no unctuousness in the observation that it is a decade of solid achievement by Academy graduates which has generated so much of the enthusiasm and confidence that surrounds the undertaking of this exciting new venture. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are already backing a belief in this achievement.

Second, there is a little false sentimentality about our present location on the part of the faculty and administration. A lot has gone on within the walls of this old building, most of it happy and constructive. But the feeling here is overwhelmingly one of eagerness to do the same job more imaginatively in physical surroundings that will allow more freedom to do so.

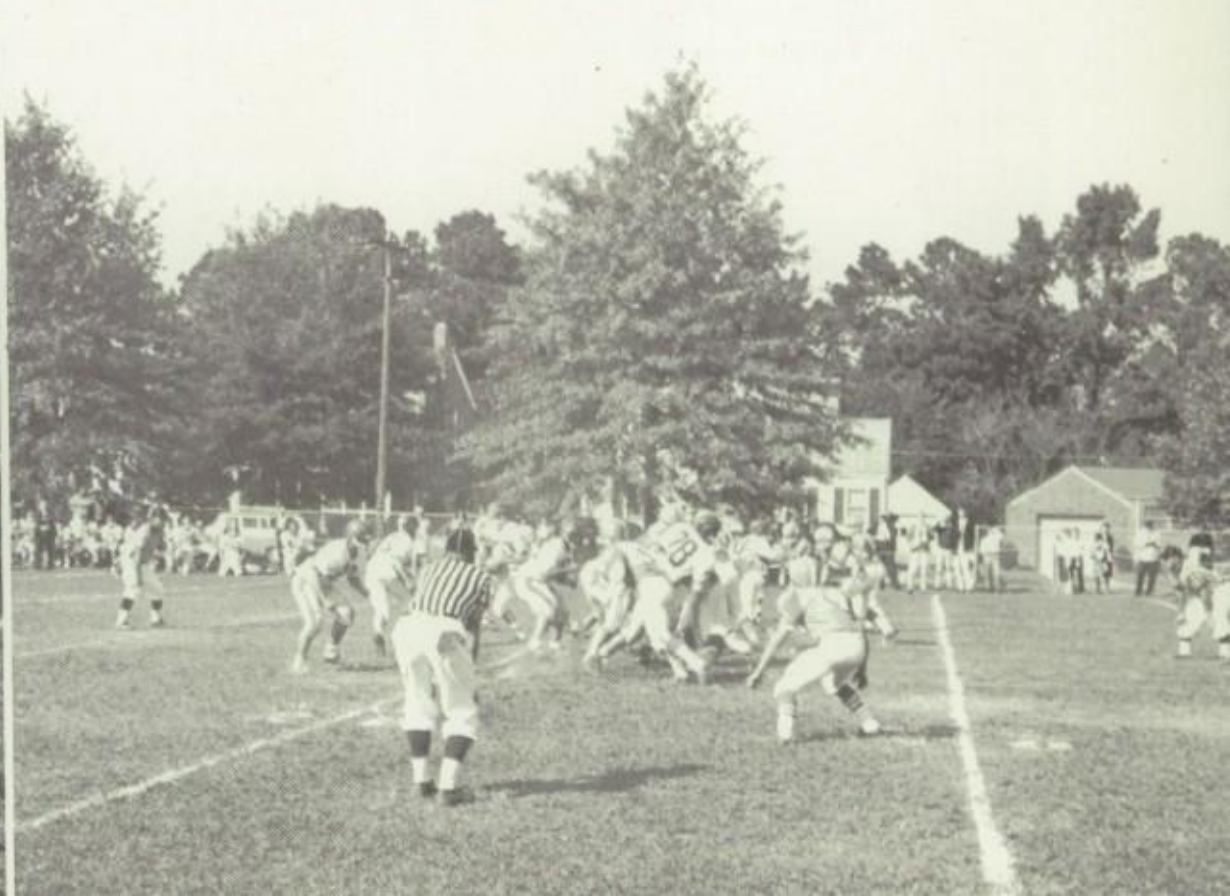

When we go, we hope to take with us everything that really counts—an unusual community and alumni loyalty, and a determination to accomplish well what we do attempt. There is no desire to cling to the old merely because it is old. What is old and good in our educational tradition, we'll keep; what is moribund, we'll discard; what is new and good, we'll adopt. There has been a single ideal at the old Academy—there will be a single ideal at the new: excellence.

The Academy in a very real sense is not leaving home. It is simply growing up and going where home is—the heart of tomorrow's greater Norfolk.

HOMECOMING

The Academy's second Annual Alumni Day, in conjunction with the Homecoming game, attracted graduates who began their tenure at N.A., in some instances, 60 years ago. About seventy-five alumni and faculty gathered at 12:30 for a buffet luncheon in the dining room; the Homecoming game with Collegiate followed at 2:00 and a large crowd was in attendance.

1963 SPRING PLAY

In April, the Academy players presented "Mr. Merkle's Dilemma," a farce-comedy in three acts. The leading character was Clark Laster, who displayed unusual acting ability as Mr. Merkle. Richard Hofheimer played the part of Jinx, a fidgeting, adolescent boy. Probably the hammiest role was that of Roy Shulman, who played a rather simple mailman, Charlie. Fenton Wilkinson and David Levy competently played two rather confused fathers, and Jim Brady was cast as a strangely debonair plumber. Marc Salzberg convincingly played a busy-body postman.

The female roles were taken by Suzy Capin, who played an effervescent youth; Ree Wormington, who, as Cousin Sarah, challenged Shulman as the loudest voice in the production; and Carol Sutton, who was cast as a confused, slightly un-nerved housewife. Mr. Tyler described this play as one of the best in Academy history.

THE 1963 SENIOR SPEECH FINALS

The Senior Speech Finals is a contest held among the four best senior speakers, chosen by the faculty on the basis of their final speeches. The purpose of the contest is to determine the best orator in the class. The competition took place on the night of May 9, and Alex Bevernick was chosen by a panel of outside judges as the outstanding speaker. Bevernick's winning speech topic was "Euthanasia." The other three finalists were Clark Laster, who spoke on "The Chinese Famine," Bill Grant on "The Coming of Pearl Harbor," and Bill Brady on "Folk Songs." The judges for this contest were Miss Helen Walker, principal and English teacher at the Carolton Oaks School, Mr. Lenoir Chambers, historian, former Editor of the VIRGINIAN PILOT and an Academy trustee, and Mr. Edward Barnett, a Norfolk business man and specialist in the languages, who has since joined the Academy faculty.

Bevernick, as the award winners of previous years, had his name engraved on a permanent cup given to the school by the Class of 1952, and it was presented to him at Commencement.
